

School bond referendum fails

Voters in the Granite City School District made a strong statement about additional taxation Saturday as they voted convincingly against a proposed referendum to improve the district's school buildings.

BAD NEWS about the school bond referendum is received by Superintendent of Schools B. J. Davis, from polling places Saturday night, as Administrative Assistant Harold Hillmer, center, and Board Member George Moore, Sr., far right, post the results on a blackboard.

Nearly two-thirds of the 3,676 persons who voted demanded that the additional taxes be rejected. It was the first time in the history of the school district that the voters have ever turned down a referendum.

Proposition one of the referendum asked voters to allow the school district to sell $2.5 million worth of general obligation bonds, which would be paid back through taxation.

Proposition two asked voters to approve increasing the tax levy for the building fund from .375 percent of the assessed valuation of property to an annual maximum rate of .475 percent, an increase of up to 10 cents per $100 of assessed valuation of homes and buildings.

Both propositions took a strong beating in balloting at all elementary schools Saturday afternoon, proposition one faring somewhat better than proposition two.

Only thirty-six percent of those voting voted yes on proposition one, the bond issue, while only 32 percent voted in favor of raising the maximum building fund tax.

On proposition one (the bond issue), the vote was 1,532 in favor and 2,686 against. On proposition two (increasing the building fund maximum tax levy), 1,337 voters said yes and 2,445 said no.

As the totals from each precinct were tabulated at the school district's main offices at 20th and Adams Streets, there never was a bright moment. The first precinct to come in was Lake School, which telephoned its results in at 7:30 p.m., one-half hour after the polls closed.

At Lake School, where 200 persons voted, proposition one failed 72 to 125 and proposition two failed 68 to 130. Superintendent of Schools B. J. Davis commented simply, "Ouch."

Next came Webster School, where the 228 ballots showed proposition one lost 67 to 157 and proposition two lost 50 to 167.

Parkview School, which supported the referendum better than any other school, followed. With 346 votes cast, voters tied on proposition one, 172 to 172, with two ballots spoiled. Proposition

Illinois the key to area growth—Schnuck

By GARY SCHNEIDER
of the Press-Record

"While we may not get that Japanese auto plant, we firmly believe that some of the best development property in the metropolitan region is right here," Edward J. Schnuck, chairman of the board of Schnuck Markets, Inc., told a gathering of several hundred Quad-City area business and community leaders during the 40th annual meeting of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce Thursday night at the Sunset Hills Country Club.

"The (Mississippi) river need not divide us, as it does. We're not going to have the kind of viability we could have, if we allow that barrier to continue. We are going to have to cooperate and identify more industrial sites on both sides of the river if we are to attract new industries," Schnuck, one of the leaders of the Regional Commerce and Growth Association (RCGA), stated. In a word of warning, Schnuck said his business has discovered that it requires 20 to 25 percent more money and about three months longer to construct a store in Illinois than to construct an identical store on the Missouri side of the river.

"This is not conducive to doing business in Illinois. Labor-management groups, such as IMAGE, are helping, but we in business have to understand that labor leaders are in an elected position and it takes more time to change than it does in business."

"We have to change some of the work rules that prohibit the productivity of labor in this area. IMAGE and others are trying to do what FRIDE did on the other side of the river. We now have the greatest backlog of construction on the west side of the river than we have had in as long as I can remember," Schnuck said.

However, future development in the St. Louis metropolitan area will have to come to Illinois. "I'm firmly convinced of that," Schnuck added.

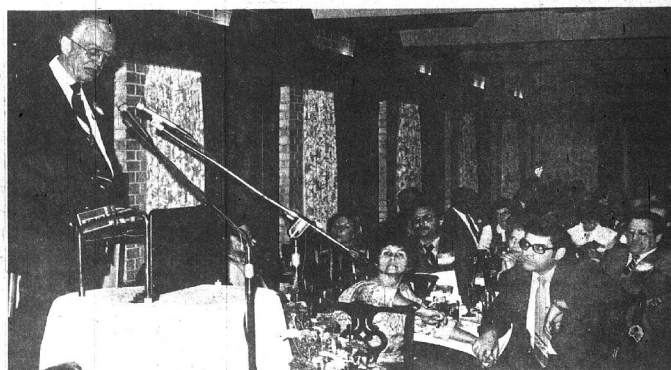

He said the MARKEE railroad relocation program "is going to be of tremendous assistance to this area. We at Schnucks have seen 2,000 mile rail shipments take longer to get through this area than they did to cover the whole 2,000 miles. We are working together on that project."

"The Mississippi has been the symbol of the division of this area. At the same time, that great river is the reason we all are here. The RCGA has been preaching regionalism for seven years now. It just makes sense."

"We are going to rise and fall together, but it takes brains to figure out how to rise together," Schnuck stated.

He said the RCGA is not in competition with local Chambers of DISTINGUISHED SPEAKER, Edward J. Schnuck, chairman of the board of Schnuck Markets, Inc., at the podium warns those attending the 40th annual dinner of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce that higher construction costs in Illinois now give Missouri an advantage in attracting industry. However, Schnuck predicts, prime industrial sites in Illinois, combined with a large and skilled labor force will make Illinois the key to the metropolitan area's growth in the near future.

Capture a con-man's con-man?

By VALERIE EVENEDEN
of the Press-Record

"I had bad vibes about going in that bank today," the soft-spoken man said to two Granite City detectives who captured him at 10 a.m. Thursday after they fired a police revolver into the air while chasing him in the 1900 block of Edison Avenue.

"I never run. I don't why I did," he admitted.

At 47 years old, maybe Leslie Edward Pope is getting too old for the sort of thing he claims he's been doing for a couple of decades, at least he thinks so, according to statements he allegedly made to investigators.

Pope was taken into custody Thursday after he allegedly attempted a "split-deposit" scheme with the intention to defraud the First Granite City National Bank.

An informational document was issued Friday afternoon by the Madison County state's attorney's office charging Pope with attempted theft over $150, a Class IV felony.

Pope had left First Bank and was running down Edison Avenue when Detective Tony Eck and Detective Jerry Wilson arrived at bank in response to a call.

A warning shot was fired into the air and the man was told to halt, but he kept on going and was finally caught by Detective Wilson in an alley at the rear of the Granite City (Trust) Bank. "You just don't catch these guys too often," Detective Eck said Friday, after he and Wilson had a long talk with Pope and numerous things had come to light.

On the desk at Granite City police headquarters were enough credit cards to finance trips to almost anywhere one could name, for whatever reason one could think of, and allow one to be dressed to fit any role. Next to the credit cards were boxes of new checkbooks issued by different banks.

Each box contained several hundred checks, imprinted with Pope's name and address, with slight variations. All the checks belonged to legitimate accounts, even though most are closed accounts, Eck noted.

There were duplicate credit cards from J. C. Penney, Montgomery-Ward, Sears, Mobil, Amoco, Union 76, Skelly, Texaco, Shell Oil, but only one each from VISA and Mastercard.

There were even a Shell Oil Medical Emergency Card and two driver's licenses—one current from Illinois and an expired one from Indiana.

Identification cards indicated Pope had different accounts at three banks in Peoria and others in Greenville and Terre Haute, Ind.

Pope apparently kept explicit records concerning his financial transactions. On the desk were notebook-style ledgers, recording various events, which the man had turned over to the detectives.

"This sort of thing goes on all over the world, especially with banks and credit cards," Eck said.

According to the detective, Pope had told of obtaining a list of banks throughout the United States which issue various credit cards by mail or in person without any type of background check.

The lists are revised each month and can be obtained legitimately for $12.95 from a company in Los Angeles, which advertises its availability in a nationally-known magazine, Detective Eck said.

Pope's demise came about primarily because of the good memory of an officer at First Granite City National Bank and a lapse in Pope's memory, it is believed. Pope was in this area five years ago, it's alleged, but he forgot.

Reportedly, the man opened an account Tuesday, Oct. 21, at First National with a $50 deposit, Wednesday, Oct. 22, he withdrew $40.

On Thursday, Oct. 23, he went to the local bank to deposit a $900 check drawn on an account in a Terre Haute bank. He allegedly wanted to deposit $400 and keep $500 from the check.

It was while verification was being made on the check to be deposited that Pope decided to get out of the bank, leaving behind his identification and deposit slip.

Of the many defrauding schemes used by con artists, the one tried here is about the easiest one, and the fastest. "There's not a whole lot of money involved (in this particular scheme), but there's enough," Eck said. "The thing is, you have to keep moving," he pointed out.

Pope's alleged itinerary for October involved flights and car travel to such locales as Tucson, Ariz., Denver, Chicago, Kansas City, St. Louis, Cairo, Ill., Michigan City, Ind., among others. Pope was born in Union, Mo., and resided in the Alton-Godfrey area at one time. He is an unbrutish-type man and was driving a 15-year-old sedan here.

"He's definitely non-violent and seems like a pretty nice guy. But, then he's a con artist," Eck alleged.

NO SOLUTION IN SIGHT. The deterioration of sections of the northbound lanes of Maryville Road, constructed in 1977, is slowly getting worse and no solution to the problem is foreseen in the near future. This view is looking south toward St. Clair Avenue. The area affected primarily are confined to the northbound lanes from Stratford Lane to St. Clair Avenue. The deteriorating pavement is attributed to the use of the wrong type of slag in the concrete mix for the construction. It has not been determined who is responsible for the problem, but removal of the affected pavement and reconstruction of the section has been suggested as the only permanent solution.

President to be here next week

The president of the United States, Jimmy Carter, is expected to make a stop in Granite City Monday, Nov. 3, the day before the general election, to make a last-minute appeal to Quad-City area voters to support the Carter-Mondale ticket.

Area Democratic officials were told Saturday afternoon that the president is planning to visit Madison County next Monday and campaign aides have told the president that Granite City would be the location where he could address the most people.

Dan Carrigan, coordinator for the Carter-Mondale campaign in Madison and St. Clair Counties, informed local Democrats Saturday afternoon of the planned visit. The location either is being kept secret or has not yet been decided, officials said.

It is expected the president will give a short talk, possibly at one of the city's shopping centers, according to Carrigan. Additional details will be announced later this week.

Buenger, Mrs. Sternberg on foundation board again

Gail Buenger, owner of Taylor Rental in Pontoon Beach and Mrs. Ruth Sternberg of Granite City, are among those who were re-elected to the board of directors of the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Foundation (SIUEF) last week.

Ralph J. Korte, president of Ralph Korte, Inc., Highland, has been elected vice-president of the foundation and four area business executives and a circuit court judge were elected to the board of directors. Nine members of the board were re-elected. New SIUEF board members are Otis Cowan, Edwardsville, manager of the Edwardsville office of Illinois Power Co.; John A. Fruit, Edwardsville, president of Edwardsville National Bank and Trust Co.; Herbert R. Hellrung, Alton, president of Hellrung Construction Co.; M. Henry Hess, St. Louis, president of Martha Manning Co., Collinsville; and Milton S. Wharton, East St. Louis, associate judge of the 20th Judicial District of Illinois. Cowan and Hellrung were elected to terms expiring in 1981, Hess to a term expiring in 1982, and Fruit and Wharton to terms ending in 1983.

Re-elected to the SIUEF board, in addition to Buenger and Mrs. Sternberg, were Carl H. Basler, Highland, president of Basler Electric Co.; K. Lewis Gilbert, Alton, vice-president of Gilbert's Ethan Allen Furniture; Mrs. Thomas Leffler, Edwardsville; James Massa, Collinsville attorney; Mrs. Fredericka J. Nash, East St. Louis, teacher and businesswoman; A. Kent Reed, Godfrey, president of Anchor Savings and Loan Association in Alton and Russell Solomon, Edwardsville, retired steel executive.

Korte is the first graduate of the university to be elected an officer of the foundation. He earned a bachelor's degree in business at SIUE in 1968. He succeeds John A. Hupster Sr., president of the Bank of Edwardsville, as SIUEF vice-president. Hupster had been serving as both vice-president and treasurer of the foundation and requested relief from the vice-presidency.

The Korte construction operation is one of the largest in southern Illinois. Main headquarters are in Highland with other offices in Marion and St. Charles, Mo.

Korte has been a member of the SIUEF board for a year. He has been instrumental in securing private funding to assist in the development of the new bachelor of science program in construction offered by the SIUE School of Science and Technology.

The SIUE Foundation is a public not-for-profit corporation, chartered in the State of Illinois, organized to solicit financial support from the private sector to assist SIUE-Edwardsville. Jul Fischer Sr. of Belleville, president of Jul Fischer Distributor Inc., is chairman of the board of the SIUEF. Rayhill J. Hagist, Highland, president of Farmers and Merchants Bank, is SIUEF president.

Completes basic USAF training

Airman James N. Lewis, the son of James A. Lewis of Granite City, has been assigned to Chanute Air Force Base, Ill., after completing Air Force basic training.

During the six weeks at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special training in human relations.

In addition, airmen who complete basic training earn credits toward an associate degree in applied science through the Community College of the Air Force. The airman will now receive specialized instruction in the aircraft maintenance field.

INTERNATIONAL PRESIDENT'S

Pontoon Lions present awards

The Lions Club of Pontoon Beach presented 1979-80 perfect attendance pins to 15 members during the club's regular dinner meeting last week.

Immediate Past President Dr. George H. Goodwin also was presented with his Lions International 100 percent club president pin for 1979-80.

Following the award presentations, the Lions voted to approve more than $1,110 in local donations.

Lion I-G Deputy District Governor Donald D. Patrick of the Pontoon Beach Club presented Dr. Goodwin with his 1979-80 international 100 percent president's pin by reading a letter from 1979-80 Lions International President Lloyd Morgan of New Zealand.

"It is my pleasure to inform you that Past President George H. Goodwin has been awarded the enclosed 100 percent club president's award for 1979-80 by the International Association of Lions Clubs."

"I would appreciate your arranging a fitting presentation of this award to him. In your presentation, please extend my personal thanks and congratulations and those of the officers and directors of our association for the leadership he has given."

Past President Goodwin becomes the third Pontoon Beach club president to receive the prestigious International 100 percent club president's award. To receive the award, the club president must fulfill 13 International requirements during his year as president.

Lions International 100 percent perfect attendance pins for 1979-80 were presented to Lions Frank Cramer, Vince Thorpe, Donald Patrick, Bobby Durbin, George Goodwin, Bob Cramer, David Schermer, Bob Barton, Bob Carroll, Mike Przygoda, Jerry Morgan, Steve Bokovsky, Walt Morgan, Phil Vaughn and Jason Kieffer.

Lions Cramer and Vince Thorpe were presented special achievement award plaques for placing first and second in the club's attendance contest.

Lion Cramer received the first place award with a total of 114 attendance credits and Lion Thorpe received the second place award with 113 credits.

Following the award presentations, the club members approved local donations that were recommended by the club's board of directors. The members approved $150 to the Cahokia Mounds Council Boy Scouts of America to help replace canoes lost in a storm last summer at Camp Sunken, $25 to the American Cancer Society, $360 to purchase a hearing aid for an underprivileged Pontoon Beach youth, $500 to purchase a new teletypewriter (TTY) machine to be installed in the Pontoon Beach Police Department which will allow deaf citizens to telephone the police for emergencies and $75 to the Tri-Cities Area United Way campaign.

Commerce. "We can't do our job without the help of strong local chambers. You know more about the Tri-Cities and you can do far more for the Tri-Cities than we can. We do not want to compete with you," he explained.

During the annual meeting, the 1980-81 fiscal year officers of the chamber were installed. Deane Karandjeff was installed as president with Bill Danovans as first vice-president, Dave Knollman second vice-president, Lawrence P. Dunn as treasurer and James G. Livingston being re-elected executive vice-president.

New board of directors members also were installed and outgoing directors and officers were introduced and thanked for their services.

Jeannette Scannell, outgoing president of the Women's Division, handed over the position to Bonnie Goldenberg. In her remarks, Mrs. Scannell said, "It has been quite an experience. I have visited the plants and the port area with officials. I worked with the Citizens Advisory Committee for schools and learned about the school system. I feel like a graduate receiving some kind of degree."

She also encouraged all women affiliated with the chamber to become active in the Women's Division to help with what will be "another terrific Chamber of Commerce year."

Mrs. Goldenberg gave a plaque and a gift, on behalf of the chamber, to Mrs. Scannell. Mrs. Goldenberg then accepted the presidency of the Women's Division and stated, "It's going to be a very busy and happy year. I encourage all women associated with the chamber to join our group."

Outgoing Chamber President Kenneth Evers also was presented a plaque for his "outstanding service." Evers commented, "It is up to all of us to make the economy move again. You and I, we can make the merry-go-round move."

"It's you and the efforts of the hundreds of members of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce which has made it so successful. I think we can make this a fine year," Evers concluded.

Karandjeff closed the meeting with his comments as the new president of the chamber. He said in the past year, this area has suffered the shock of the closing of the A.O. Smith Corp. plant, a farmer, landowner and by high workmen's compensation laws.

He said he has faith that a "more stable industry than the auto industry" will be found to occupy the A.O. Smith plant in the near future.

He pointed to construction of Pre-Coat Metals, building of a foreign trade zone at the Tri-City Regional Port and other accomplishments as "just the beginning of the future for this area. We look for the help of the RCGA in this area."

"We also need to utilize the Army Depot property as much as possible," he contended.

He said the Quad-City area has much offer industry, in addition to land. "We have a large and able work force, educated by fine schools and blessed with fine industrial experience."

"I am looking forward to working with you for a year of growth, new industry and community improvement," Karandjeff concluded.

Master of Ceremonies Randall Robertson presented two special plaques during the meeting. The Citizen of the Year award was given to Dr. Folecia Koch and the Chamber Member of the Year awards went to Sister Mary Thomas, director of St. Elizabeth Medical Center, and to Wilbert Engleke, a farmer, landowner and active member of the chamber and its board of directors.

Regan leading, even in Democratic stronghold, according to local poll

Ronald Reagan is leading the polls for president of the United States nation-wide, but the question whether Reagan can win in such a heavily-Democratic area of the country as the Quad-City area is a question being debated by Republicans, Democrats and independents alike.

Although not an official poll, employees of the Uniform Centers in Granite City and Alton, have been asking persons who they would vote for, were the election held today. The results may be surprising to many.

Mrs. Lena Tunnell of the Granite City store and Keith Harris of the Alton store first decided to ask people during the Women's World Show at the Cervantes Convention Center earlier this week how they would vote if the election was held today.

Ronald Reagan lead overwhelmingly in the one-day voting with 167 votes. Democratic President Jimmy Carter followed with only 59, John Anderson received four votes, Ed Clark had three. Twenty-one persons said they were still undecided.

Mrs. Tunnell, who was involved each presidential election with her husband, the late attorney Robert Tunnell, said she also was interested in seeing how the results would be of a poll in Granite City. She asked David Agnew of the Alton store to poll persons for two hours in Crossroads Plaza Shopping Center and found Carter did much better here, but Reagan still won.

His two-hour poll showed 25 supporters for Reagan, 22 for Carter, seven for Anderson and 14 persons undecided.

ARRESTED WITH KNIFE

Jeff S. Perryman, 20, 2714 Myrtle Ave., was released after posting a $35 cash bond on a charge of disorderly conduct. Police were called to Curt's Grill about a disturbance and a man with a knife. Arriving at the scene, police allegedly saw Perryman with a knife, took it from him and placed him under arrest. Perryman allegedly displayed the knife after someone accidentally bumped into him.

Council rejects appeal to allow mobile homes to stay

Two mobile homes in the 2500 block of West 20th Street may have to be moved soon, unless the owner of the property can get new petitions from the area's neighbors agreeing to allow the mobile homes to remain where they are.

At the last meeting of the Granite City Council, Joseph Smith, 4761 Vincent Ave., owner of the West 20th Street, was allowed to address the council to appeal action at an earlier meeting withdrawing the proper zoning for the mobile homes.

That action was taken after the neighbors petitioned the council to withdraw the zoning, alleging that Smith had misrepresented his intentions when he asked them to sign a petition allowing the mobile homes.

The neighbors told the council that Smith indicated he planned to use the mobile homes for relatives to live in and then he allowed renters to move mobile homes onto the lots. The aldermen held that previously approved zoning, based upon the earlier petitions, was null and void, particularly since the zoning was granted under the name of the previous owner of the property and not under Smith's name.

Smith told the council last week he did not feel it was proper of the city to grant zoning for the lots and then give him the necessary permits to put in concrete mobile home lots, and then turn around and withdraw the permits, after Smith had invested money in the lots and one "rehab" had purchased a mobile home to live there.

Alderman Paul Fisk of the Third Ward alleged that Smith had used similar tactics to put renters in a mobile home in the 2500 block of East 29th Street, saying it was for a relative, so neighbors would sign the zoning petitions.

Smith strongly disagreed with Fisk's statement and a realtor who spoke in support of Smith said he handled the transaction for Smith to move his mother into the mobile home. However, she declined to move into the unit, so Smith rented it out, the realtor said.

Alderman Lloyd Bailey of the Fifth Ward objected that he nor Mrs. Margie Nomm, the two aldermen of that ward, were notified by city officials that the mobile homes were to be placed on West 20th Street. He contended city inspectors should have notified the aldermen, so they could have checked the request before it was approved.

A motion was made by Alderman Charles Douglas of the First Ward that Smith be allowed to seek new petition signatures and attempt to gain proper zoning for the mobile homes on West 20th Street in his own name.

City Attorney John Papa said he felt Douglas' motion was in order, since the council apparently had not voted before on any mobile home zoning for these lots. "A petition is simply a petition. Only the council can let someone put a trailer on a lot. Now he has to start all over again."

Smith said he did not feel he would be able to obtain a sufficient number of signatures now, because the neighbors were angry over his renting the lots.

One person in the audience, who said she was the occupant of one of the mobile homes, told the council she had sold most of her possessions to purchase her mobile home. "What am I supposed to do now?" she asked.

Mayor Paul Schuler asked Smith to come to his office at a future date to attempt to resolve the problems caused by the disagreement.

SBA seeks nominations of outstanding businessmen

The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) has urged small business leaders and small business associations, other trade associations, chambers of commerce, SBA's Advisory Council members, state and local officials and bankers to submit nominations of persons to be honored during 1981 Small Business Week. Each year, SBA notes the achievements of small business by sponsoring a week-long national program. During this program, called National Small Business Week, the beneficial role of small companies in the national economy is stressed and outstanding small business persons around the country are honored.

Also honored are a number of persons with outstanding records for having acted as advocates for the small business community and for performing with distinction on Federal procurement contracts.

The SBA is seeking advocacy candidates in eight categories: banker, family-owned business, minority business, accountant, research, innovation, media and lawyer advocate.

Nominations may be sent to any SBA office.

Faces 3 charges

Robert E. Mouldon, 19, of 1940 Joy Ave., was arrested in the 2500 block of State Street last week and charged with assault, disorderly conduct and contributing to the sexual delinquency of a minor. He appeared before a judge who set bond at $1,500 cash and a mittimus was to be issued.

The state charges stemmed from alleged incidents involving a 15-year-old Granite City girl, whose father had reportedly told Mouldon to stay away from his daughter.

Mouldon allegedly went to the father's place of business and told one of the man's employees he wanted to see the father and there was going to be problems for the man.

After being asked to leave, Mouldon reported sat outside the place for 20 minutes before departing.

About three hours later, Mouldon allegedly went to the father's house and when police were called in reference to a troublemaker, he fled in a car.

In an earlier incident, Mouldon allegedly had threatened the father, should he interfere with Mouldon seeing the 15-year-old girl.

two, however, lost, 161 to 175. Still, Davis reviewed the results and commented, "That helped."

That turned out to be the high point of the short, but to school officials seemingly long, night. Logan School followed, where 256 persons voted and both propositions lost badly. Proposition one failed 55 to 188 and number two went down 40 to 201. "Not good. Not good," Davis commented.

Emerson School, with 175 votes, was next, turning down proposition one 76 to 94 and proposition two 47 to 116.

Then came Mitchell School, with 213 votes. Number one lost 86 to 119 and number two failed 68 to 133.

Wilson School phoned in the results of 189 votes cast and reported that proposition one lost 71 to 111 and proposition two failed 69 to 113. "That didn't help us any," a dejected Davis stated.

Maryville School tallied 350 votes and reported next in line, holding to the normal—failures for both propositions. Number one failed 101 to 241 and number two lost 91 to 254. "That was not good. That was not good at all," Davis said.

Marshall School came next, reporting 216 votes cast and losses on both propositions. The vote was 12 to 132 on the first and 76 to 134 on the second.

Next was Johnson School, with 188 votes, showing proposition one failing 71 to 112 and proposition two being defeated 62 to 121. "Three to go," Davis said, indicating little hope for passage. Niedringhaus School, which had the largest total vote of any school, 716 ballots cast, diminished any remaining hopes when it reported proposition one failed 57 to 435 and number two was defeated 215 to 484. "Back to the drawing board, but there's nothing left to draw on," Davis said after reviewing the Niedringhaus School totals.

The next to the last school to report was Frohardt School, where 328 persons voted; the total was 196 to 318 on proposition one and 176 to 336 on number two. "The defeat became official when the last, and second largest tally of the night, came in from Nameoki School, where 713 persons voted. Proposition one failed 236 to 462 and proposition two failed 214 to 481.

Davis thanked those present who supported the referendum and commented, "Apparently we just didn't make it clear how badly we need this money. I don't know where we are going to. We are just out of money in that fund."

Last year, only the sale of McKinley School kept us going. I don't know where you are going to go when you are out of paper (money)," Davis concluded. Assistant Superintendent of Schools Frank Kraus told the Press-Record, "I'm disappointed. I just don't know what we will do. The schools needed the repairs and the people said, 'No.' At least we went that route, taking it to the people out in the open, not through a back-door referendum."

Davis said the official election results will be presented to the Board of Education at its next meeting, "to start from scratch again."

Rules for trick-or-treat

In an effort to protect children, trick-or-treating in the Quad-Cities should be limited to Friday, Oct. 31, from 6 until 9 p.m., according to the area chiefs of police.

Parents are urged to restrict their children to trick-or-treating only their immediate neighborhoods. Parent cooperation is essential, if the children are to be kept safe, according to the chiefs, who believe these limitations will reduce the possibility of the children being harmed by strangers.

Adults are asked to accompany their children. Some safety tips parents should give their children, according to police officials include:

Cross streets only at corners and never in the middle of the block.

Wear light-colored costumes and reflective strips, if possible.

Check that the costumes are fire-resistant and short enough to prevent tripping. Mask should allow adequate vision.

At street corners, remove the mask before crossing the street and look carefully. Do not accept unwrapped "treats."

Do not get into cars of strangers. Parents also are urged to check candy the children receive carefully for packages which appear to have been rewrapped or have the coverings broken as though something might have been inserted.

Early morning armed robbery

Anthony Gregory, 714 West Washington St., Madison, reported that at 3:30 a.m. today two men and a woman robbed him of his wallet and $125 in cash.

The armed robbery allegedly took place on the corner of Jackson and West Second Streets, Madison.

One of the men pointed a revolver and reportedly said "Hand over your wallet." Then the three allegedly went across the street and into the El Capaloro lounge, then left in a dark colored van.

The Brooklyn police notified Madison police they stopped three suspects in the type of van that Madison police were seeking. Madison officers questioned the suspects and released them, pending further investigation.

Vandal slashes tires on auto

The tires on four vehicles, parked in the 2700 block of Buxton Avenue, were slashed by a vandal using a sharp instrument, it was reported at 8:40 a.m. Sunday.

Autos on which tires were damaged belong to Paula Wade, 2707 Buxton, Lynda Husted, 2717 Buxton, Virginia Cantlon, 2704 Buxton, and Pam Wise, 2707 Buxton.

GC church to host Halloween party

Granite City area school children are being invited to a community Halloween costume party Thursday at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church. Activities will begin at 6:30 p.m., according to Judy Lee, chairman of the festivities. Niedringhaus United Methodist Church, First United Presbyterian Church, and Modern Woodmen of America, a fraternal insurance society with home offices in Rock Island, Ill., are co-sponsoring the party. "We're hoping for a terrific turnout because we've got the prizes and souvenirs to accommodate quite a crowd," Mrs. Lee said.

Costume judging will encompass all ages, and games and activities will be provided for all, although the main emphasis will be on school-age children.

TRUCK BURGLARY

A camper truck belonging to Larry Spicer, Evansville, Ind., burglarized while parked in the parking lot of Bethel Chapel, 25th Street and Ohio Avenue, it was reported at 7:50 a.m. Saturday. Pilgrim Statue brings message of prayer

MESSAGE OF FATIMA BROUGHT HERE. Above—Linda Hylla, a former Madison resident and parishioner of St. Mary's Church, crowns the Pilgrim Virgin Statue of Our Lady of Fatima which visited the church this week. She is now an affiliate of the community of the Sisters of Divine Providence. She is assisted by four eighth-grade girls. The statue, hand-carved in Fatima, Portugal, in 1947, tours various parts of the world annually spreading the message of Fatima, which is prayer. AT right—Louis Kaczmarek, custodian of the statue, prepares it prior to entering the church for a special mass and program. It remained in the church overnight during which an all-night vigil was kept. This was the first time the statue had been at St. Mary's and the honor of its presence will not quickly be forgotten by those present. Parishioners from St. Mark Church in Venice and St. Joseph Church and St. Margaret Mary Church also participated in the program and vigil.

Committee women meet candidates

The Madison County Democratic Committee Women met last week in Godfrey, Ill.

President Maxine Costoff presided over the meeting. Officers who were present were Sadie Brink, first vice-president; Rosalyn Kalvin, second vice-president; Sylvia Theis, treasurer; Judy Chapman, secretary and Bea Wiehe, chaplain.

Also present were Chris Costoff, Madison County Democratic chairman, Walter "Buck" Simmons, clerk of the Appellate Court and Todd Renfrow, chairman of the Illinois County Democratic Chairmen.

Many of the Democratic candidates were in attendance, including Nicholas Byron, states attorney; Ronald "Rick" Lucas, recorder of deeds; Dallas Burke, coroner; Pete Fields, auditor; Willard "Butch" Portell, clerk of the circuit court, and Sam Wolf, state representative.

The candidates for office thanked the women for their past support and asked for their support in the upcoming election. Rep. Wolf urged members to vote "No" on the proposed change in reducing the membership in the state legislature. The meeting concluded with a discussion of the John F. Kennedy Dance to be held Nov. 2 at Englebert Hall, Madison, and a planned Christmas Party to be held Dec. 16 at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Alton.

Super-large sweet potato

This is the first time sweet potatoes have been grown in the garden of Mary Tate, 5101 Maryville Road, and the result was a bumper crop. A family member said last week that one sweet potato, however, dwarfed all others. The particularly large specimen weighed three-and-a-half pounds, was more than 12 inches long and measured 13 inches around.

Vandalism total is less than $8,000

Losses from vandalism Oct. 6 at Granite City High School North now appear likely to total less than $8,000, Supt. B. J. Davis told the Board of Education.

A $4,700 microfilm unit can be repaired for $800 or less, and repairs to two analytical balances are expected to average less than $425 each, the superintendent said.

Piano repair costs total $657, painting has cost $739 and glass replacement will amount to $3,450, the board was told.

"There are still a couple of costs to be determined, but the overall loss will be much less than was originally estimated," Davis said.

"We are continuing to assimilate information of the break-in. Suppliers of the equipment that was damaged indicate that most of the items can be repaired rather than completely replaced."

"The insurance company is working with Maintenance Supervisor Ronald Landman relative to the damage to the building and the costs resulting from that damage."

"The vandals have not been apprehended, but the police are still actively pursuing the investigation, as is the staff at North High."

School Attorney William Schooley ruled that the school district could not itself provide funds for a reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the vandals.

A board member indicated that he may try as an individual to raise contributions toward a reward.

The board designated Mitchell Principal Arthur Menendez to serve as assistant girls' basketball coach at North and William Koenig to be assistant girls' basketball coach at South.

A temporary disability leave was granted to John Merz, a custodian at North.

The board decided to continue its policy of spending no local tax funds to supplement funding of a program in which only a portion of the community is eligible to participate, such as federally-financed Title I instruction.

As a result of a ruling by State Title I Director Robert Hardy, the board rescinded its approval of expenses for attendance by a teacher at an early childhood conference in San Francisco Nov. 23-24. However, the state ruling is being appealed this week and the district hopes that the trip can be made.

Mrs. Anita Ettimoff will attend the national and international convention of the National Association of Gifted Children Oct. 30-Nov. 1 in Minneapolis.

Acting on hardware supply bids, the board made purchases totaling $3,185 from nine firms.

Two companies will provide laminating paper and transparencies totaling $1,455.

It was noted that when the school district decided part of its Board of Education office site to the city (subsequently decided by the city to Siderer Supply Co.) in return for perpetual school trash pickups by the city, the amount of property being leased by the district to Siderer was reduced.

In view of the reduction, the monthly rent charged Siderer is to be reduced by the schools from $200 to $150 for the remainder of this fiscal year. A decision will be made next spring on the rent to be charged for the 1981-82 year.

The Junior High Youth Fellowship of St. John United Church of Christ was authorized to use the South High gymnasium March 27, 1981, for a fund-raising activity, a musical program by the Foggy River Boys from Branson, Mo.

Bethel Evangelical Church will hold monthly volleyball practice at Maryville School in 1980-81.

The Frohardt Beach Lionsess Club will distribute flyers at Frohardt, Nameoki, Mitchell, Lake and Maryville schools announcing its Halloween parade Oct. 30.

The Frohardt Parent-Teacher Association will donate funds to Frohardt School for library purchases, "rainy day" games for each class, and field trips by students.

Magazine sale proceeds raised by Grigsby Junior High students will finance a copying machine and a home economics department microwave oven.

Parkview PTA will provide $1,060 for field trip transportation, $500 for playground balls and $500 for library educational materials.

Also accepted was a $1,300 contribution by the Johnson PTA for a standard duplicator and stencil duplicator.

'CYCLE STOLEN
A red 1979 Suzuki motorcycle belonging to Brian Wilson, 1494 Norwood Drive, was stolen last week from the parking area at Eddie's Lounge, 2900 Nameoki Road.

Honor former resident

Retiring Army Signal Corps Major Joseph L. Clouse, formerly of Granite City, was honored at a formal dinner-dance recently at the Indian Trail Country Club in Royal Palm Beach, Fla., where he and his wife, Ruth, have resided for the past eight years.

Thirty guests attended the event, which also celebrated Major Clouse's 60th birthday. A surprise visit by his aunt, Mrs. Juanita Shaw of Columbus, Kan., was a highlight of the evening.

Toastmaster Paula Gehl also paid tribute to Major Clouse for his services the local volunteer fire and rescue association. Mrs. Gehl also read a congratulatory letter from Commanding General C. F. Briggs, Department of the Army, and a personal letter from Governor Bob Graham of Florida.

Major Clouse commenced his military service in 1960, enlisting with the U.S. First Cavalry Division. Later, after receiving his commission in the Army Signal Corps, he was transferred to the South Pacific, where he served in the Solomon Islands campaign, and the liberation of the Philippines.

His last overseas assignment was during the Korean conflict and his last stateside assignment was as signal officer at the former Granite City Engineer Depot, released from duty in 1969, he remained active in the Army Reserve program. Major Clouse retired from a civilian position with the Aeronautical Chart and Information Center in St. Louis in 1972, at which time he and Mrs. Clouse moved to southern Florida.

Mrs. Clouse has two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Haley and Mrs. Homer Brown, long-time residents of Granite City, as well as numerous other relatives in this area.

Arrest two after fight

Robert M. Barnhart, 32, of 2111 Alexander St., and Louis D. Martin, 42, of 1644 Delmar Ave., were arrested last week on charges of disorderly conduct (fighting) following an altercation at the Long Branch Tavern, 208 Grand Ave.

Police were called to the tavern and found broken beer mugs on the tables. It was alleged a fight had started between Barnhart and a third man and Martin joined in the argument.

Leonard C. Crome, tavern operator, said he had fired a .25 caliber automatic pistol toward ceiling in an effort to stop the combatants.

MONSANTO INCOME LOWER FOR QUARTER: Monsanto Company has reported consolidated net sales for the third quarter of 1979 compared with $1.497 billion for the third quarter of 1978. Net income was $29.6 million compared with $38.9 million.

John W. Hanley, chairman, said, "Monsanto's third quarter was one of the most difficult periods in recent times. Pre-tax income reflected the fact that demand from many of our major markets was at the lowest level in many years. Volumes of products we sold fell six percent, and we also imposed stringent inventory goals on operating divisions to conserve working capital."

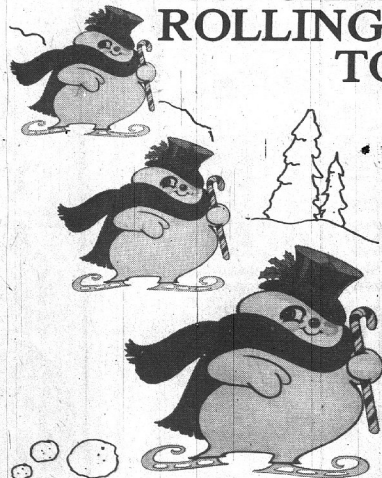

Allege man shows weapon

Gary M. Edwards, 30, of 18 Briarcliff Drive, was arrested last week and charged with disorderly conduct after two 13-year-old boys informed police that a man with a weapon had yelled at them at the rear of Central Hardware.

Edwards was taken into custody near the K-Mart store. He allegedly had a 10-inch bass knife stuck in the waistband beneath his shirt and told officers that he had seen a man with a gun in the rear yard of his home and was looking for him.

20% House absenteeism

A Coalition for Political Honesty study of Illinois House voting records shows that an average of nearly 20 percent of House members were absent and failed to vote on roll calls during the 1980 session.

The group said Rep. Jim McPike missed 109 roll calls or 9 percent, Rep. Sam Wolf 203 or 17 percent, and Rep. Everett Steele 319 or 26 percent.

The 1980 reports of the House Daily Journal show that the 177 House members recorded 42,383 absences on 1,214 roll call votes. On the average, 35 state representatives were missing per roll call.

"While 20 percent of the House regularly missed legislative roll calls, only four percent of the House members missed the 57 quorum votes, called to give representatives their $36 a day expense allowance."

"It's ironic that many incumbent representatives are criticizing the cutback amendment to reduce the size of the House by one-third when 20 percent of the House members aren't even showing up to vote anyway," said Patrick Quinn, Coalition spokesman.

"No private business would keep an employee on the payroll if he missed work 20 percent of the time."

"Why should Illinois taxpayers be required to maintain dozens of absentee legislators who do not take their voting responsibilities seriously?"

"Illinois state representatives are the highest paid in the nation with a $26,000 annual salary — about $14,000 more than the average annual wage of an Illinois worker. No deduction is made from a legislator's salary if he misses a roll call vote."

The study did not evaluate the relative importance of speaking votes cast or missed. Quinn said the Coalition study "underestimates the true absent rate of House members because it is common practice for representatives to ask their seat mates to push their voting button when they are off the floor."

"The United States Congress prevents members of Congress from engaging in this vote switching practice by using a key car system which only allows a congressman to activate his own voting button."

"The people of Illinois are fed up with inefficiency, absenteeism and monkey business in their House of Representatives," said Quinn.

"By voting for the cutback amendment on Nov. 4, voters can reorganize and overhaul a legislature which is incapable of reforming itself."

"The amendment is a binding referendum to reduce the size of the Illinois House from 177 to 118 members and require representatives to run in competitive one-on-one contests."

Completes basic

Airman Douglas W. Mathis, the son of Mr. Jessie B. Mathis of Granite City, has been assigned to Kessler Air Force Base, Miss., after completing Air Force basic training.

During the six weeks at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special training in human relations.

In addition, airman who complete basic training earn credits toward and associate degree in applied science through the Community College of the Air Force.

The airman will now receive specialized instruction in the computer

RELEASED ON BOND

Scout leaders are honored at dinner

Five volunteer Scout leaders of the Uniwah (Quad-Cities) Boy Scout District, were honored Saturday evening by being presented with the District Award of Merit.

Those receiving the highest honor a district may award were: Mrs. Sandra Buford, Frank Wood Sr., Charles Shane, Charles White and Albert Sanders. The award is given to a leader who excels in service to the program of the Boy Scouts, above and beyond their normal duties.

Mrs. Buford, 2300 Delmar Ave., currently is a member of the district training committee. She has served as a committee chairman, assistant den leader, scouters reserve, cubmaster and day chairman for the Cub Scout Day Camp. She has also earned the Cub Leader Training Award. Wood, 2404 Sunbury Ave., is an assistant scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 102, sponsored by Suburban Baptist Church. He has served on a Cub Scout pack committee and as a pack committee chairman, in addition to having been a cubmaster. He is a Brotherhood member in the Order of the Arrow, the National Honor Camping Society in the BSA and has earned the Scouters Training Award. Shane, 2117 Hamilton Ave., is a troop committee member of Boy Scout Troop 5, sponsored the Nantuxi Training Award. He has also served with Cub Scout Pack 96, and has taken all the scout leaders training courses. He is a Brotherhood member of the Order of the Arrow.

White, 2132 Harrison Ave., is an assistant scoutmaster of Troop 5. He has earned the Scouters Training Award and is a Brotherhood member of the Order of the Arrow. Sanders, 1845 Rhodes St., Madison, has been active with Pack and Troop 46, Cub Scout Pack 146, and Troop 47. He is a Brotherhood member of the Order of the Arrow. New officers for the local district were installed, including: Paul Mihalich, district chairman; Dave Nolan, vice-chairman of membership; Irvin C. Slate Jr., vice-chairman for finance; Donald L. Bridick, vice-chairman for program; and Fred Mercer, district commissioner.

Numerous awards were presented to various Cub packs, Boy Scout troops and explorer posts.

Seminar on area development

A seminar concentrating on the promotion of area economic development will be held at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, last week.

A session focusing on "Selling a Community to Itself" is scheduled from 3 until 5 p.m. A second session, "Selling a Community to Outside Investors (To Prospects)," will be held from 7 until 9 p.m. Both sessions will be in the Mississippi Room of the University Center.

Twenty community agencies, including several chambers of commerce, development commissions, governmental agencies, utilities, and SUE are sponsoring the seminar. The sessions are free, with dinner reservations costing $6.

Speaker for the seminar is William H. Hall, executive director of the Pueblo Development Commission in Colorado. A certified industrial developer and fellow member of the American Economic Development Council, Hall is a past den of the Economic Development Institute. Previously, he was a facility planner for the Rival Manufacturing Company and economic developer for Sedalia, Mo., and for the state of Missouri.

Additional information and dinner reservations may be obtained by contacting Robert Koepke, coordinator of area development as SUE, by telephoning 1-602-3886.

HOUSE BURGLARY
Nelda Lancaster, 2626 Grand Ave., discovered that between 6 p.m. Friday and 1 a.m. Saturday her house had been ransacked and burglarized. Items taken included a 14-karat gold necklace and two pair of 14-karat gold hoop earrings, with a combined value of $320.

Arrest follows disturbance

Wayne L. McClelland, 29, of 2623 Hodges Ave., was arrested near his home and was charged with disorderly conduct last week on a complaint filed by his estranged wife, Victoria McClelland, who said he came to the house yelling and making threats.

Police were summoned by Mrs. McClelland, who called from a neighbor's house after leaving her own home while her husband allegedly was attempting to force open a rear door.

Mrs. McClelland reportedly had scratches and abrasions on her neck and face. She told police she had incurred the injuries during an incident involving her husband a short time earlier at Highway 111 and Route 162 to which Madison County deputies had been called.

McClelland appeared before a judge at 2:05 p.m. Monday and pleaded guilty. He was fined $100, plus $15 court costs and was ordered to pay the amount at a later date. He was released.

Burglarize 3 vehicles

The vehicles of three visiting ministers, who were parked in a lot at Bethel Chapel, 25th Street and Ohio Avenue, were burglarized while the owners were attending a religious convention at Kiel Auditorium, St. Louis, it was reported at 7:30 a.m. Friday.

A 1968 pickup truck and camper belonging to Ed Stephens of Mattoon, Ill., was entered and an eight-track cassette player, worth $100, a CB radio, $75, and a brown box containing mechanic's tools, valued at $200, were stolen.

Larry Spicer of Evansville, Ind., reported that missing from his 1974 pickup truck were a 23 channel CB radio, a 12-volt battery, a tire and wheel, a hand-made knife and a set of leather-working tools in a box.

Leon Belt of Jonesboro, Ill., said missing from his 1978 van was a CB radio, worth $25.

Tootsie Roll drive planned by K of C Friday, Saturday

The Knights of Columbus Council 1098 of Granite City has announced that the 11th annual state-wide Tootsie Roll Drive for the mentally retarded citizens of the state will be held Friday and Saturday.

Grand Knight August Sacadat of the Council also announced that Knights Harry Hadley and T.A. Feiler will be the chairman and co-chairman, respectively, of the drive with other Knights and their wives assisting.

Help is needed to man various points for the solicitation and anyone wishing to help is asked to call Sacadat at 831-3722 or the Knights of Columbus Hall at 877-4250. The telephone at the hall will be answered Mondays through Wednesdays after 6 p.m. and Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays from noon to 11 p.m.

Volunteers are asked to leave their names and the hours they can work on Friday or Saturday, or both.

A sign-up chart also is posted at the Knights of Columbus Hall for members and guests who wish to sign up.

Persons who fail to sign up in advance, but would still like to work, may report to the hall either day at 7 a.m. to be assigned candy, an apron and a location to work. Individual businesses already are being solicited by Sacadat and Past Grand

Knights A.L. "Pete" Metcalf. Even though "money is tight," according to Sacadat, particularly in business, most businessmen solicited have been generous, "opening their hearts and their purses for those citizens who are less fortunate than you or I."

After the candy sale, 10 percent of the profits will be donated to the state-wide "leadmobile," which tests children for lead poisoning, which can lead to brain damage, particularly in children.

The remaining 90 percent will be used in the Quad-City area for projects and programs to benefit the mentally retarded.

"The workers will wear bright yellow vests which are readily identifiable and will be giving the Tootsie Rolls away while asking for donations, not selling them. Any amount donated, large or small, will be gratefully accepted, whether it be a nickel, a dollar or more," Sacadat said.

GARAGE BURGLARY

Chester E. Whyers, operator of the Luna Cafe, 201 E. Chain of Rocks Road, Mitchell, discovered at 7 a.m. Thursday that someone had forced entry into the garage behind the cafe and took a desktop and a mud buggy. The combined value was estimated at $1,200.

Halloween attractions full swing this week

With the Halloween season at hand, numerous activities have started and will be starting until the "hallowed eve" Friday, Oct. 31.

During the weekend, the Granite City Jaycees opened their "Haunted House" and will have it open again Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, beginning at 7 p.m. at 1855 Poplar St.

The cost of this attraction is $1 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12.

A "skoleton" key to the "Haunted Castle," 1316 Madison Ave., was presented to Count Dracula and his son Dracula Jr. at 7 p.m. Sunday by Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk, marking the official opening of Explorer Post 104's halloween attraction.

Other guests at the presentation were State Senator Sam Yaden, and Madison Chief of Police

Donald L. Bridick, secretary-treasurer of the Police Benevolent and Protective Association, which sponsors Post 104. The "Haunted Castle" is open every night this week through Halloween. Admission to the "skoleton" key is 50 cents for children under 12 and $1 for those 12 years of age and over.

The last chance to take a "Haunted Hayride" will be Halloween (Friday, Oct. 31). This 30-minute ride begins at dusk from 28 Kelly Drive, Arlington Heights. Six creepy wagons will run until 10:30 p.m.

Cost of the "Haunted Hayride" is 75 cents for children under 12 and $1.50 for those over 12. Halloween night from 8 p.m. until 10 p.m., The Word of Life Tabernacle Church will have a "Haunted House" at 4105 Kaseberg Lane, Pontoon Beach.

The Pontoon Beach Lioness Club will hold its third Halloween parade and costume judging on Thursday at 6 p.m. in the Gaslight Plaza Shopping Center. The parade will remain in the shopping center lot, rather than touring the village, as in past years.

Steele Lodge 272 will hold its annual community Halloween parade and costume judging, beginning in front of the Granite City Hall at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 31.

More-the-Merrier potluck

Thirty-eight members and guests attended the More-the-Merrier Senior Club potluck dinner Thursday at the Granite City Township center.

Guests introduced were Vera Crook, Imogene Claxton and Mrs. Carme Meade.

Volunteer workers in the kitchen were Pauline Cox, Evelyn Smith, Rosemary Breyer, Marie Stanek, Helen Newland and Jennie Moody.

It was announced a Thanksgiving dinner will be held Nov. 13 at 1:30 p.m. at the township center, with those wishing to attend wear a maple leaf headband, chest of drawers and bed frame from a mobile home at the Shelton "Court," 2501 Nameoki Road.

6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 29, with prizes to be awarded.

"Rules of the Road" sessions will take place at the township center Nov. 19 and Nov. 20, with both classes starting at 9 a.m., the seniors were advised.

Plans for a covered dish dinner sponsored by the Golden Agers were announced. The event is set for noon, Tuesday, Nov. 11, at the Kirkpatrick Homes Recreation Center.

STEAL BED, CHEST
Virginia Shelton reported last week that someone stole a maple bed, headboard, chest of drawers and bed frame from a mobile home at the Shelton "Court," 2501 Nameoki Road.

Day of Renewal Nov. 15

The Living Resource Center at the National Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows will conduct Sisters' Day of Renewal, Saturday, Nov. 15. The renewal begins at 10 a.m. in Christ the King Chapel and concludes with a 3 p.m. liturgy. Father Leo Figge and Sister Helen Smith will conduct the renewal.

Sisters' Day of Renewal is a program providing women of any religious congregation time for prayer and reflection. Also, the availability of the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Eucharist provides for spiritual enrichment. The conference topic throughout this season of renewals will be "Living with Jesus' Questions."

Father Figge and Sister

Helen will discuss the topic "Death and Growth," with specific emphasis on the questions "Where have you laid him?" and "Why have you been standing here idle?"

Additional information is available by calling the Living Resource Center at the Shrine, 1-397-6700.

BURGLARY CHARGE

Dennis J. Smith, 17, of 3051 Circle Drive, arrested at Granite City police headquarters on a warrant charging burglary from the Norfolk and Western Railroad, appeared before a judge last week and was released on a $5,000 recognizance bond.

Girl Scouts attend heritage festival

Junior Girl Scout Troop 359 from Emerson School, attended the Heritage Days Festival at Gordon Moore Park in Alton.

The group viewed a grand parade of colonial life and drum corps and saw demonstrations of early American crafts.

They also took the children's tour and participated in making a Johnny cake, wrote on wood with charcoal, participated in spinning and weaving, and candle dipping and made a God's eye.

Other exhibits visited by the local scouts were a grist mill, large tepees and a miniature doll house of the 1700 era.

Those attending were Annette and Tanya Albertson, Melanie Mertz, Nicole MacLaughlin, Sara Terrell, Stacie Hewlett, Dena Harris, Tina Henderson, Cathi Hester, Carolyn Schildman, Tracy Morgan, Ida Manning, Laura Sexton, Michele Ward, and Mrs. Alberta Manning, leader and Mrs. Carolyn Hester, committee assistant.

All the scouts received a Heritage Days patch for attending the festival.

PURSE STOLEN

Sheila Chronister, 2506 Lincoln Ave., reported her brown clutch purse, containing $300 cash, $159 worth food stamps and other items, was stolen from a cart while she was shopping at National Food Store last week.

$30,000 GIFT to the Shriner's Hospital from a will is presented to Bill Chapman, right, chairman of the Board of Governors of the hospital, by Robert J. Hildebrand, vice-president and trust officer for the Granite City (Trust) Bank. When the estate is settled, additional money will be made available to the hospital and the more than 340 children Ainaid Temple will sponsor in 1980. From left are Don Adams, chief Rabbi of Ainaid Temple; Philip A. Theis, attorney for the estate, Hildebrand and Chapman. The man who donated a portion of his estate to the Shrine hospitals has not been named. The budget this year to operate all 21 Shrine hospital units exceeds $55 million, according to Chapman.

Budget cuts for TB clinic debated

Whether or not the Madison County Tuberculosis Clinic should remain in operation is the topic of a debate underway among county board members. O.A. "Pat" Weindel (R-Highland) has called the clinic "the biggest white elephant in the county" and says he feels taxpayers' money is being wasted, since only seven new cases of TB were discovered in the area last year.

William Webb (D-Granite City), chairman of the county's Health Institutions Committee, disagrees, saying that U.S. Health Department figures showed 47 new cases of TB in Madison and St. Clair Counties last year. He says that in addition to treating persons with the disease, the clinic X-rays about 500 persons per month and serves numerous county residents who could not get help elsewhere. He contended that eliminating the clinic would save taxpayers only about $2 per year. In response to a recommendation from the county's finance committee that the clinic budget be cut, the clinic already has taken moves to streamline operations, including the dismissal of the three-member board, the closing of the clinic on Tuesday nights and the laying off of a nurse and a clerk.

Dr. Louis Ventura, physician in charge of the clinic the past 19½ years, has issued a statement defending the clinic and asking county board members to oppose a budget cut. He said the county's clinic is levying a tax only half of what is allowed by law.

It provides a free service in diagnosing TB and offers free treatment for those who do not have insurance to help them through the nine months of treatment and the expensive drugs required, even in simple cases if TB.

"We cannot afford to lose one-third of our budget and continue to render a very necessary service for the people of this county," Dr. Ventura said in his statement.

He also stated that 24 physicians at a recent meeting of the county board voted unanimously to keep the clinic open in its present form, due to its "cost efficiency."

Whether the clinic is cost efficient or whether it is, as Weindel contends, "the biggest waste of taxpayers' money in the county," is a question bound to be debated heatedly in the county circles until at least next month's county board meeting.

Halloween traditions constantly changing

By GARRY N. MURPHY
Department of English Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville

Halloween is probably America's most mixed-up holiday. It is generally assumed to be a children's festival — except by a few teenagers seeking an excuse for a little vandalism and freeloading.

The official date is Oct. 31, but the festivities may begin two or three days before that, depending upon the customs of any given locale. No one seems to attach any ritual significance to the festival; that is, it has no meaning, no point.

And every year, the traditions weaken. Today, most children have no idea when they go "trick or treating," that they are supposed to have a trick up their sleeves for those who refuse to treat. Tell them, "I'll take the trick," and they will stare at you from behind their false faces with blank and uncomfortable astonishment. The word "Halloween" comes from "Hallows Evening," the night before "All Hallows Day," the English label for the Christian holiday, All Saints' Day, Nov. 1.

The early Christians

usually managed to subsume pagan rites into a Christian context. They "concocted" them, so to speak. But in the case of Halloween, the old Celtic customs connected with the harvest and the onset of winter seem to have been left untouched, untransformed — and badly remembered.

Perhaps for the Christians of the seventh and eighth centuries, it was a satisfactory spiritual lesson just to see in the two days the sharp contrast of the unhalloved (unholy) — the bonfires, the ghosts, the skeletons — and the halloved (holy) — the mass for the saints.

$884 loot in garage burglary

When Clyde White, 2253 (rear) Lee Ave., returned from vacation last week he found a burglar had entered his garage and stolen an extension ladder valued at $100 and a box of assorted hand tools worth $500.

Also taken were two 14-inch wheels and tires, $100, a power saw, $50, electric drill, $40, a battery charger, $35, and two Coleman lanterns, $60.

455 trucks stopped in crackdown

State revenue agents halted 455 trucks and other commercial vehicles at a West Frankfort, Ill., weigh station during a weekend this month, in a spot-check of interstate carriers for compliance with the Illinois Motor Fuel Tax Act.

According to a 1977 amendment to the Act, interstate commercial vehicles using diesel fuel are required to register with the state and pay motor fuel taxes in the miles driven within the state.

A separate amendment to the Act effective this year provides for citations and penalties for those not registered with the state or not having temporary permits.

The new law requires that each commercial motor vehicle operator obtain an interstate special fuel permit, or a single trip special fuel permit, prior to operating a diesel-powered vehicle on Illinois roads.

Revenue agents found 41 of the 455 trucks checked did not have the necessary permits.

Each was issued a $35 traffic citation, penalized an additional $50 for not displaying the necessary permit, and required to buy a $10 single trip permit.

During the past three months, revenue agents have stopped more than 3,000 trucks and commercial vehicles, spot-checking for the necessary special fuel permits.

More than 320 drivers have been ticketed for a total of more than $11,200 in traffic fines.

The single trip permits sold and the $50 penalties imposed added up to an additional $19,300.

Trucking firms may register with the department by contacting the Illinois Department of Revenue, Application Processing Unit, P.O. Box 4065, Springfield, Ill. 62708.

Single trip permits may be obtained from Illinois Department of Revenue offices as well as various permit and license services and several Illinois truck stops.

The law applies only to interstate vehicles using diesel fuel. Vehicles operated solely within Illinois and government vehicles are exempt.

Route 3 crash injures three

Three persons were injured when the autos of Larry Richardson, 34, East Alton, and Mrs. Violet Mueller, 78, Belleville, collided at Route 3 and Missouri Avenue last week.

Mrs. Mueller was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way when turning left from the southbound lanes of Route 3 across the northbound lanes, where it collided with Richardson's northbound car.

Two ambulances, tow trucks and a fire department pumper were called to the accident scene and the drivers and a passenger in Richardson's auto were taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Richardson suffered minor injuries. His passenger, Mrs. Catherine Richardson, 34, Edwardsville, suffered abrasions to her face and a cut to her left elbow. She was released after emergency room treatment.

Mrs. Mueller suffered multiple injuries and was admitted to the medical center in good condition.

Steelers keep hopes alive with 21-0 rout

BY LAND OR BY AIR. Granite City North had little trouble beating sister school Granite City South Friday night 21-0 in a key

By TOM SCHOCKER
of the Press Record

GRANITE CITY — When the football season began for Granite City North this year, Doug Sheppard could have been placed in the "two is company, three is a crowd" category. But after his performance against rival Granite City South Friday, he's in a class by himself. With the almost unstoppable Sheppard ripping through the line for 132 yards on 17 carries, the North Steelers kept their playoff hopes alive with a 21-0 stomping of South. North has a 6-1 record.

So why hasn't he been used more this season? The answer to that is simple. Kevin Buchanan. However, an early third period strain of Buchanan's already tender sprained ankle gave Sheppard a chance.

With a backfield that consisted of Buchanan, Rich Buer and Daren

Gateway East Conference game. The win gave North a 6-1 overall record and a 3-1 conference mark. The Steelers can still claim an at-large DePew. Sheppard's time on the field was rather limited. When Buchanan first sprained his ankle two weeks ago Sheppard stepped into the starting lineup. And stayed there until Friday. "I kind of thought I might see some action with the way Kevin's ankle was," said Sheppard, "but I was pulled out in the second quarter."

It looked like Buchanan was on his way to a comeback when he ran into the end zone at the 10:08 mark of the second stanza. The score became a 0-0 deadlock. Buchanan's 14 yard run culminated a 72 yard drive by the Steelers which took 5:13 to accomplish.

At that point the game was already shifting into another North-South pressure cooker.

Both clubs exchanged mistakes and turnovers throughout the first 24 minutes of the contest. Neither team seemed willing to capitalize. The Warriors played by penalties time and again never really managed to draw closer than the North 20 yard line. When they did get close, a bad snap allowed Bruce Monahan's 37 yard field to drop short.

"Mistakes absolutely killed us," said Warrior head coach Stan Wojcik. South was penalized seven times for a total of 70 yards.

On the other side of the field, Steeler head coach Tom Wyrzyk was having his problems too. Except for the lone scoring march, the potent North running attack was held to a stand still.

"They were keying on our main running plays," said Wyrzyk. "We probably could have passed a little more, but they were stopping what we do best."

The Warrior running game was also having problems except for Mark Clark. On 14 carries, he gained 84 yards and was solely responsible for the lead berth in the playoffs if they beat Edwardsville next week. At left, North's Rich Buer (35) breaks a tackle attempt by South's Mike Bunjan. At

of runnings plays as South had only six other carries.

The beginning of the second half didn't look much different after the first two series by both teams. North did manage to get off a 47 yard field goal attempt by DePew. It had plenty of distance, but it was just wide of the goal post. To make matters worse, Buchanan was forced to leave the ball game. A relief for South, but a blessing for North.

Having only gained maybe 10 yards in the first half, Sheppard was inserted into the backfield. It made all the difference for the Steelers, along with some changes by Wyrzyk. "We changed our blocking assignments," said Wyrzyk. "We used the end sweep, but it was the blocking scheme that was the whole key to the win. You only have to score once when the defense gives up zero."

Sheppard found the holes and increased North's margin to 14. Using 1:35 off the clock, the Steelers only had to drive 21 yards for the score as Sheppard blasted in from 7 yards. The tally was set up by Mike Long, who was also coming off an injury. He picked off a John Linhart pass that squirted away from South's Rich Daily.

The lack of handling passes was yet another problem that faced the Warriors all evening. "We dropped too many easy passes," said Wojcik. "It took John a while to get warmed up, but when he did, he was on target. They were there, we just weren't getting them." The 40 degree weather might have had an effect. "This was the first really cold ball game," added Wojcik. "It didn't help the receivers either."

The combination of the two factors gave Linhart a 7 for 28 passing performance with 105 yards.

To top everything off, the Warriors most reliable receiver, Mark Marsh, was given a bad jolt on a reception in the final quarter. It was bad enough that his collar bone was broken. "Marsh getting hurt really killed us too," said Wojcik. "He's a hell of a competitor. He's one of those receivers you like to throw to."

However, the winds were already taken out of South's sails early in the fourth quarter. A 47 yard run by Sheppard highlighted a very impressive scoring march for North. An 11 play, 88 yard drive that took 5:17 was capped off by Rich Buer's two yard run. "They made the adjustments in the second half," said Wojcik. "We gambled on defense and if you don't do what you're supposed to do, you'll get hurt. We beat ourselves. We gave them 21 points."

North outgained South in total yards 260-156. The Steelers had 145 yards rushing compared to South's 51. North had 15 air yards, South 105.

South, DeRuntz move on to X-C Sectional

By TOM SCHOCKER
of the Press Record

GRANITE CITY — The Granite North cross country course is "flat." That's what most runners would call it. It was the site for the IHSAA Class AA District Cross Country Meet held here Saturday.

But the terrain or even the cool, brisk morning didn't seem to bother North's Bruce DeRuntz or the entire Granite South squad. DeRuntz ran the course well enough to place ninth in the meet, advancing to the Sectionals next week in Springfield. As for the Warriors, the entire team will be an entry in the meet.

DeRuntz was only one of 82 runners entered in this initial step of post-season cross country competition, which included 13 schools. Gary Chappel from Alton ran away from the pack to grab first place honors, completing the three mile run at 13:47.

"He's (Chappel) probably the best runner around," said Steeler head coach Pete Robinson, who saw his own runner, DeRuntz, cruise to his best time of the season. Although finishing in ninth with a time of 14:28, the senior placed third as a qualifying individual runner, thus moving him into the sectional meet.

"All the people who break 14 minutes on this course go on to place in the state meet," said Robinson. "I would even say fairly high in state. DeRuntz's time was very good. In fact, I think it was excellent. But he could have placed a little higher up."

"You see, I don't have a kick," said DeRuntz. "I don't have a sprinter's twitch, like the runner at East St. Louis. So at the end of the race I start to fade a little." There is nothing he can do about it, according to the Robinson.

"We are aware of it," said Robinson. "It's his most obvious weakness. It's not that he doesn't try. He's an outstanding runner, but you can't make a non-sprinter into a sprinter and the reverse is true. Being ninth in a meet like this and with so other runners, is not too bad."

Another coach who has to be pleased in what he saw is Granite City South head coach Dick Harmon. His entire squad qualified for a trip to Springfield as the Warriors finished fourth in the team standings. The top school was Alton followed by East St. Louis and Belleville East.

"We could have run better," said Harmon.

Althoff puts Jerome, Cahokia under wraps

BELLEVILLE — The Belleville Althoff Crusaders wrapped up Cahokia last night, beating back Mike Jerome here Saturday night, and in the process wrapped up the undefeated outright championship of the Gateway East Conference with an easy 40-13 victory at Township Stadium.

The cards were stacked against Cahokia from the beginning. It was Althoff's homecoming, the final home game of the season and the Crusaders had already wrapped up a playoff berth last week against Granite City North, the only team with a mathematical chance of tying them for the title. But North will have to beat conference rival Edwardsville and then sit back and wait for the Illinois High School Association hierarchy to make its choice of "at-large" playoff berths, awarded to independent schools and those which finished second in their conferences, but have outstanding records. If the Steelers should win next week, they'll have a 7-1 record. For Belleville against Cahokia, it was a performance that made head coach Glenn Schott. "I was real proud of them," he said. "It was the seniors' last home game and I wanted to see if they could get themselves up for this one and they did. We took it to 'em early."

Understatement. Dave Maul samped 45 yards from scrimmage on the third play of the game. With Jeff Junker adding the extra

Warriors third in tourney

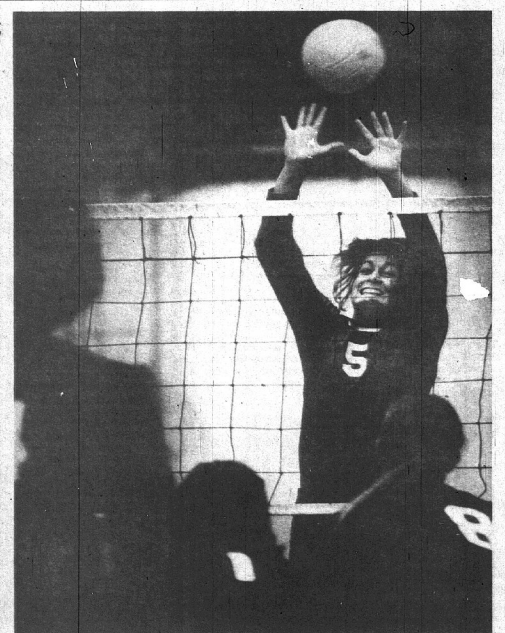

BELLEVILLE — The Granite City South Warriors volleyball team came up with a clutch performance here Saturday night and came away with third place in the tough Belleville West girls' volleyball tournament.

The Warriorettes, after losing a tough match earlier in the day to the host West Maroons, played inspired against Freeburg in the third place match and downed the Lady Midgits in straight games by scores of 15-12 and 15-11. Belleville West defeated crosstown school Belleville Althoff for the championship in straight sets by scores of 15-9 and 15-7.

In the semifinals, South took the powerful West Maroons to three games before bowing. South won the first game 17-15, but lost the next two by scores of 15-9 and 15-6.

South, which was seeded fifth in the tournament, advanced to the winner's bracket of the tournament Friday night with a three-game match victory over fourth-seeded Red Bud. The Warriorettes beat the Musketeers 15-11, 9-15 and 15-4. In other first round action, West beat Weslin in straight sets 15-8 and 15-3. Althoff defeated Belleville East 16-14 and 15-5 and Freeburg beat Mascoutah 15-9 and 15-9.

match Saturday afternoon, Althoff needed three games before it could dispose of Freeburg. The Crusaders eventually came out on top by scores of 15-13, 15-17 and 15-8.

In consolation bracket action Saturday morning, Red Bud defeated Weslin.

Flach wins singles

Special to

BELLEVILLE — Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville freshman standout Ken Flach won the singles championship here Saturday in the annual Oak Hill-SIU Invitational Tennis Tournament, but his teammates finished second. Flach beat Clemson All-American Mark Dickson 6-3, 6-4, in the singles championship match. The NCAA Division I power finished the tournament with 48 points. SIUE, the defending NCAA Division II National Champion, was second with 32 points.

Going into Saturday's matches, Clemson held a narrow one point lead over the SIUE Cougars 27-26, but won all three doubles flights, and four of the seven singles flights Saturday to walk to the victory. Dickinson and teammate John Desdunes beat SIUE's Hugo Nunez and Raimon O'Jala in crisis semifinals 6-4, 6-4. The Clemson duo went on to win the doubles championship. In the number four singles flight, SIUE Cougar Douglas Burke won the championship. He defeated Clemson's Richard Abel by scores of 6-3, 7-5 in straight sets.

SIUE freshman Joe Vasson won his first round singles seventh flight match with Illinois State's Jeff Brandt 6-1, 6-4. But he lost in the second round to Wayne Wisconsin 6-2, 6-4. In the Third Flight Doubles con-

Herzog is named as 'new' manager for Cards

ST. LOUIS (SLWN) — Dorrel (Whitey) Herzog, general manager of the St. Louis Baseball Cardinals, will assume the dual role of both general manager and field manager for the 1981 baseball season, it was announced Friday by August A. Busch Jr., chairman and president of the Cardinals.

"We realize that this is unique in baseball but we strongly believe that Whitey is capable of handling both jobs," Mr. Busch said. "As both field manager and general manager he will be able to view the talent on the field and know first hand what our needs are, which we think will be beneficial to the club."

To assist Herzog in his dual responsibilities, Joe McDonald, former general manager of the New York Mets, has been named executive assistant-baseball in the Cardinals' organization, reporting to Herzog. Mr. Busch announced.

"Joe's knowledge of the game and the National League, as well as his experience in working with Whitey in the Mets' organization, will provide us with what we believe will be a successful management team," Mr. Busch said.

McDonald, a native New Yorker, started with the Mets' organization as club statistician in 1962. He later served as Director of Scouting, Administrative Services, Director of Operations and General Manager.

Herzog, a native of New Athens, Ill., was named field manager for the Cardinals last June. In August, he was appointed General Manager of the team and served in that capacity through the 1980 baseball season.

During his eight-year Major League playing career, Herzog was with the New York Yankees and the Washington Senators. He later served as scout, player development and coaching capacities with the New York Mets, the Kansas City Athletics, and California Angels. He has served as manager of the Texas Rangers and the Kansas City Royals. During the four and one-half years he managed the Royals, the team finished in either first or second place in its division (American League West) each year. His record with the Kansas City Royals follows:

1975 — Herzog served as manager from mid-July through the remainder of the season. His team finished second in the division.

1976 — Kansas City Royals finished first in the division.

1977 — Kansas City Royals finished first in the division.

1978 — Kansas City won the division, lost in the playoffs.

1979 — Kansas City finished second in the division, three games out of first place.

ISU Redbirds finish spring season at 11-1

BLOOMINGTON — An 11-1 fall baseball record was not Illinois State University baseball coach Duffy Bass' main priority, but the success came as a result of meeting goals Bass set.

"We try to work on mechanics and play situations as well as find out what kind of talent we are working with," Bass explained. "Also the fall season gives us a chance to blend our freshmen with our veteran players. From the standpoint of those goals, I have to say mission accomplished."

The "Achilles Heel" of last spring's team, the catching position, has been significantly strengthened with the addition of freshman Jim Pacanowski of Woodridge (Downers Grove South). "Pacanowski will really help our team," Bass said. "Jay Hoffman (of Highland), who ended up playing in almost every game as a catcher last year, was simply overworked as freshman." Pitching, characteristically the strength of the strength of Bass-coached teams, showed much improvement after a rash of sore arms last spring left the staff's future questionable. "The pitching staff has shown me some very positive traits," Bass said. "We have some pitchers coming back that improved and some fine incoming pitchers. I think we are finally over the sore-arm hump."

Bass can count on senior Don Borgini of Gillespie, sophomore Jim Scott of Normal (University High) and freshmen Tom Hamerton of Peoria (Richwoods) and Greg Troemel of Graylake as starters. Three of the four were 2-0 with Scott at 2-1.

Junior Duane Johnson of Peoria (Manual) made a strong comeback after disappointing sophomore season. He had a 2-0 record and one save.

The previously tough ISU infield improved even more this fall, Bass said. "They add a lot of leadership, talent and competitiveness to the team. They have just gotten tighter defensively and tougher this fall."

Junior Brian Romack of Homewood (Homewood-Flossmoor) had a solid autumn at first base. Juniors Rick Powell of Mundelein and Tom Hennrich of Granite City (South) provide a tough double play combination at second and shortstop, respectively, while adding offensive punch.

Senior Mike Bock of Ripon, Wis., is steady at third base and continues to show his prowess at the plate. Bock knocked out five home runs last spring and three round-trippers this fall.

The outfield has been strengthened by freshmen as well as returning veterans. Lynn Wade, a sophomore from Griggsville, will hold down the center field spot. Arlington Heights senior Mike Mayerck, who suffered a knee injury at the start of the fall season, should return to left field by spring.

Right field will be in a phony situation to give several players a chance to prove themselves. However, Bass is counting on highly touted freshman Bob Dugay of Midlothian (Bremen).

ISU's hitting was solid this fall, but Bass refuses to single out any individuals. "If you take care of the defense, you'll be in 'most every ball game," he explains. "Different people will make the hits and score the runs, but hitting is almost secondary to good defense."

While this fall's 11-1 record ranks among ISU's best fall marks, the true test comes next spring. "I think we will have a very exciting ball club this coming spring," Bass predicted. "The athletes on this team are good solid students and citizens off the field. Add their talent on the field, and we should have a very solid ball club."

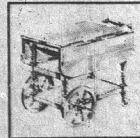

Steamers announce games

ST. LOUIS — The St. Louis Steammers, in preparation for their second Major Indoor Soccer League season, announced today that individual game tickets will go on sale Monday, Oct. 27. The season opener will be Thursday, Nov. 20, at the Checkerdome. Game time is 7:35 p.m.

Tickets, priced at $4, $5 and $6 can be purchased at the Checkerdome Box Office between the hours of 10 a.m. and 6 p.m., Monday through Friday, and on weekends as well. Other ticket outlets are located in Sears stores at Jamestown Mall, Northwest Plaza, Crestwood Plaza, St. Clair Square, Alton, and the South Grand Store. Tickets are also available through Dial-A-Tix at 569-0500.

The Steammers will have reserved seats available at a reduced rate for groups of 20 or more. A $1 discount off the basic ticket prices of $4, $5 and $6 is available.

"WE SERVICE WHAT WE SELL"

A Grueling Granite Grind

GRANITE CITY — The second annual Greater Granite Grind in history now. But Saturday, it was an on-going event through the streets of Granite City.

About one hundred runners from all over the Midwest came to Granite City to take part in the run. Many, of course, were from Granite City. The winner of the two-mile run was Bob White. Paul Macios was second. Glen Rodgers came in third.

The winner of the Women's two-mile run was Pat King. Margie Ballard was second and Debbie Brown was third. In the 6:2 "main event," the under-18 winner was Andy Conpell. Mike Pifer was second and Terry Zarling was third. In the 18-29 male group, Russ Colona, Don Klingel and Steve Weeks all crossed the finish line at the same time, giving them first place finished in their age group and first place overall. All three are members of the SIUE cross country team.

In the 30-39 age division, Dusty Morris was the winner. First in 40-49 was Dennis Sturman. In 50 and over Bill "Red" Schmitt was the winner.

In the women's groups, the under 18 winner was Gigi Johnson was first. In the 30-39 group, the winner was Ralph Hausmann came away with first place.

O. I've heard a lot on the newscasts lately about different economists saying the recession is over. Personally I can't see that there have been any major changes. How do they justify their optimistic statements? A. When you really listen closely to the opinions of economists you will hear phrases who think it's not over and some who don't even think it started in the first place. For the most part however, they do seem to generally agree that the recession probably ended sometime this summer. That feeling is based on a number of factors. Automobile sales have shown some sign of recovery. Housing starts nationwide are increasing. What is called the "index of leading indicators" advanced rapidly in early summer. Unemployment dropped slightly during the summer. Large companies reported increases in orders and retail sales showed three months of steady growth. All these factors point to an increase in the economy rather than a decline typified by recession. If the recession did in fact end at mid summer, then it will go down in the economic text books as the shortest one ever.

O'Keefe filling Ebert's shoes with good style

By DAVE CAUSEY
for the Press-Record
EDWARDSVILLE — Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville soccer coach Bob Guelker had a big job to do in filling the shoes of Don Ebert, his All-American forward, who forfeited his senior year of eligibility to go professional at the end of the 1979 season. Besides owning the one-year scoring record for SIUE, Ebert also held the scoring record for Missouri high school competition. Guelker may have gone a long way toward filling

Ebert's shoes when he successfully recruited Dan O'Keefe.
O'Keefe is an outstanding goal scorer himself. In fact, last season at McCluer High School, O'Keefe scored 39 goals, shattering Ebert's old mark of 35, making him one of top prep players in the country. Ebert starred for Rosary High in St. Louis.

Actually, it wasn't hard for the Cougars to recruit O'Keefe. "I've wanted to play here since the seventh grade," O'Keefe explained. "So when Coach Guelker came to talk to me, that was that."

So far this season, O'Keefe has booted in four goals, second high on the squad. This may seem low for this point in the season, but the Cougars have a very balanced attack.

O'Keefe is a journalism major at one of the top U.S. schools in the nation, SIUE. "I intend to get a degree while I am here. I would like to someday play professional soccer, but you can't do that forever. Right now I just want to improve my play as much as I can. I would like to be able to play as well as Ebert does. He came to a couple of our practices and showed me a lot of things," O'Keefe said.

As for the team this year, the Cougar forward wants nothing but the best. "I would like for us to repeat as NCAA champs and I believe we can. This team is one that really can put it together. We don't have any "big shots," so we have a balanced team effort. We have a lot of excellent players, and when we are playing our game, we are tough to beat," he said.

"Coach Guelker is the main reason for that. He is an inspiration to all of us. He motivates you to want to win," O'Keefe added.

With a forward like O'Keefe for the next three years, the Cougars look like a team bound for success.

invitation to serve on the Selection Committee by selection committee for the Budweiser Most Valuable Player Award at the 10th annual Bronze Boot soccer match at Busch Memorial Stadium on Thursday, Oct.

Woosman will be joined on the Budweiser MVP
Selection Committee by Dennis P. Long, president of Anheuser-Busch, Inc., and Kyle Rote Jr., a former professional soccer standout and the broadcast color commentator of this year's performance during the 1978 contest. A year ago, SIUE

Cougar goalkeeper Ed
Guttenier earned the Budweiser MVP honors for his shutout performance against the Billikens.

Selection of the Budweiser MVP for the Bronze Boot game represents just one aspect of Anheuser-Busch's promotional support for this year's contest, which includes a pregame (6:30

Other Althoff touchdowns were scored by Junker on a 90 yard run and Chris Denick on runs of 17 and eight yards.

"Our offensive line just controlled the line of scrimmage from the start," said Schott. "They did it all."

The win gives Althoff a 7-1 record overall, 5-0 in GEC

"We have pretty good depth and we can make a good showing in the sectionals. We spent more time on speed this week and during the race. We are picking up too."

Speed was important as five of South's runners placed in the top thirty positions, enabling the Warriors to move on. Heading the way for the Warriors was senior Jeff Taylor. South's top runner, Taylor, finished eighth with a time of 14:47.

"I'm more of a hill runner," said Taylor. "I probably could have had a better race, but I started to tighten up at about the one mile mark. This course is as flat as you can find, though. I think when we get to Springfield, I'll do better. They have a few hills there."

The runners and coaches alike agreed, the preparation for the district or for any meet changes from week to week. "Being a hill runner," said Taylor, "I had to change my whole workout. I just had to keep running on flat courses." However, for DeRuntz it was like "being home" so to speak. He is a natural flat course runner.

"People don't realize there is a lot of difference between running hills and flats," said Robinson. "You just have to be a cross country runner, that's all. For us, I kept them on schedule and hoped they peaked. There's no tomorrow."

EDWARDSVILLE — This week's collegiate soccer rankings, with the University of San Francisco Dons still firmly perched on top, point up the peril which faces the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville kickers this coming weekend.

Saturday, Coach Bob Guelker's SIUE soccer team will play the 15th-ranked University of Wisconsin at Milwaukee Panthers in Milwaukee. The next day, the Cougars will move down to Chicago to play a very tough University of Illinois-
Chicago Circle team.

The Cougars, despite a loss to Rockhurst College at Kansas City, 1-0 in overtime, and a 2-1 victory over a very strong Quincy College team, lost ground in the rankings, dropping to 17th from last week's 14th slot.

The Cougars are faced with the near necessity of winning both road games if they wish to keep alive their hopes of qualifying for a post-season NCAA regional tournament bid and, of course, a chance to defend their national championship.

Right now, St. Louis University and Southern Methodist University (which just returned to the Top Ten after a three-week absence) appear clinched to claim two of the three Midwest Regional berths. The SMU
Mustangs who tied SIUE 1-1 early in the season at Dallas, took over the 13th slot in the rankings. St. Louis University held firm at the eighth slot.

If the Cougars defeat the St. Louis Billikens in the 10th
Annual Bronze Boot Classic,
Oct. 30, at Busch Memorial Stadium, all kinds of possibilities open up. Still a possibility, of course, is that the Midwest Regional will have a Wild Card berth that the Cougars may earn.

Quit smoking clinic planned

"Cigarette smoking is related to lung cancer in men. The magnitude of the effect far outweighs all other factors. The data for women, though less extensive, points in the same direction," the U.S. Attorney General reported in January, 1964, adding, "the risk of developing lung cancer increases with duration of smoking and the number of cigarettes smoked per day, and is diminished by discontinuing."

The position was arrived at by a panel of doctors and scientists which had been appointed as a fact-finding commission to review the evidence. The report stated that not just lung cancer is involved. More deaths from other lung diseases such as bronchitis and emphysema occur among cigarette smokers than nonsmokers. Other cancers which strike smokers more frequently than nonsmokers are cancer of the larynx, oral cavity and esophagus, the report shows. Cigarettes are also cited as a factor in peptic ulcers, heart and circulatory diseases.

Studies show that death rate from lung cancer in cigarette smokers is about 10 times that of nonsmokers. It is estimated that about 80 percent of lung cancer is caused by smoking, according to the latest available evidence.

The Venice-Madison Advisory Council on Mental Health and Other Social Concerns believes that smoking is a major social problem from both an economic, physiological and psychological standpoint. For this reason, they have taken on a project, sponsored by the American Cancer Society, to help people stop cigarette smoking.

An "I Quit Smoking" clinic will be held at the Venice Recreational Center, 323 Broadway, Venice, Nov. 10 through the 14 from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. nightly. The cost for the entire clinic will be $2 per participant.

The primary purpose of the clinic will be to assist smokers in overcoming the withdrawal effects of smoking and to provide each individual with cancer prevention educational materials.

Programs for the various evenings include a number of films, in addition to keynote speakers. Talks include Dr. Leonard Van Camps on "Believe You Can and You Will"; Dr. Felicia Koch on "Medical Effects of Smoking"; Nurse Bernice Savage on "Pregnancy and Smoking"; and Charles DeGiaccio, clinical psychologist, speaking on "Relaxation and Stress Management."

Small group discussions also are planned each evening. Interested persons or those who have stopped smoking and would be willing to assist as group leaders are asked to send their names, addresses and telephone numbers to: Madison-Venice Advisory Council on Mental Health and Other Social Concerns, 2024 State Street, Granite City, Ill. 62040, or phone the American Cancer Society toll free at 1-800-642-8084.

Arrest woman holding knife

Called by neighbors to the 2100 block of State Street, where a woman reportedly was holding a knife and threatening anyone who came near her at 10:40 p.m. Thursday, officers saw Evelyn A. Wilson, 26, of 2132 State St., run to the front porch at her home.

The woman allegedly refused to drop the butcher knife she was holding and was disarmed by an officer.

Miss Wilson was charged with disorderly conduct. She remained in custody Friday, pending further investigation of the incident and the possibility of additional charges being filed.

Allege driver strikes 3 signs

Phillip L. Stamps, 42, of 1501 Grand Ave., arrested on five charges at 11:20 p.m. Sunday, was taken a short time later from police headquarters to St. Elizabeth Medical Center and was admitted.

Police were called to 15th Street and Madison Avenue, where it was alleged Stamps struck a stop sign, a street sign and a no parking sign with a van and then left the scene.

Stamps was located at 15th and Grand, where he apparently fell to the ground while getting out of the vehicle. Police said Stamps was bleeding from the back of his head, but declined medical attention. Later, he asked to be taken to the emergency room.

Stamps was charged with not having a driver's license, illegal transportation of liquor, failure to exhibit his license on demand, driving under the influence of alcohol and damaging public property.

Lesche hosts Guest Day

A tour of the historic DeMeill Mansion and gardens in St. Louis provided the scene for the Lesche Literary Club's annual guest day and luncheon last week.

Club president, Mrs. Maryann Cochran extended a welcome to each of the eighteen members and guests who attended the event.

Following the luncheon, Mrs. Lois Holsinger introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Norma Rathert of Edwardsville. Mrs. Rathert, a native of Australia, entertained the group with a dramatic reading from the book, "The Law and the Prophets," and concluded her program with an original poem which celebrates our heritage in the United States.

The next club meeting will be held on Nov. 11 in the home of Mrs. Catherine Schipper, Hazelwood, Mo. At that time, Mrs. E.A. Viehl will present a program on "The Restoration of Landmark Homes," and Mrs. Peg Stevens will give a tape painting demonstration.

BUSY HANDS. Members of the Ladies' Sodality of St. Elizabeth Church putting the finishing touches on items for the 13th annual Christmas Bazaar to be held at the church on Saturday, Nov. 1, from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. From left, members of the workshop committee, Sharon Rickert, Ginger Hayes, Carmen Schwartz, Joan Spohr, Marie Turner, Pat Weathers, and chairmen of the dining room and kitchen committee, Christine, Mary and Loretta Haack and Agnes Friedel, completing the luncheon menu.

Christmas Bazaar at St. Elizabeth

The 13th annual Christmas Bazaar prepared by members of the Ladies' Sodality of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church will be open to the public on Saturday, Nov. 1, from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. in the school cafeteria, featuring a wide variety of handmade holiday gift items, food, flower booths and game booths. A Christmas booth arranged by Carmen Schwartz and Joan Spohr offers over 1,000 ornaments in 60 different varieties, including wood, calico, crocheted and ceramic, wall hangings, braided and calico wreaths, sisal, yarn and pine cone wreaths.

Also calico bells and Christmas card holders, firebird brooms, an assortment of wood combs, featuring sleighs, reindeer and cheese boxes and musical balls.

Other articles will be tree top angels, felt tree skirts plus calico and crocheted tree skirts and stockings, ceramic Christmas tree, stuffed crocheted snowmen, children's wooden cars, trucks and trains.

Ginger Hayes and Maxine Czerniejewski have prepared a handwork booth where they will display crocheted cats, dogs, slippers, baby booties, baby afghans, comet cleanser covers, banks, two large afghans, painted items, crocheted dolls and blankets, horse jump ropes, doll quilts, quilted throw pillows and cracker plaques, and many other articles.

Home-made candles, sucker holders and other novelties that hold candy and are ideal for stocking stuffers have been made and collected by Margaret Grobowski and Norma Kacera for the Candy Booth.

Marie Planitz is in charge of the Country Store that will have homemade food items such as apple butter, apple sauce, jellies, peppers, cakes and pies.

The seasonal project will also have a Take One Stand under the direction of Mary Lou Kwiatkowski and Rosemary Tomlovic, a religious booth prepared by Barb Collins, and a quilt booth headed by Rose Nagy and Pat Thomas.

Top prizes to be awarded during the day is a new portable sewing machine and a G.E. AM-FM digital clock radio.

The carnival room under the chairmanship of Jan Polach and Lorraine Kuberski will have popcorn for sale, an animal walk, bean bag toss, fish pond, holligan game, with posters and stuffed animals as prizes.

4th birthday of Jodie Kern

A Halloween party marked the fourth birthday of Jodie Lynn Kern, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Kern, 613 E. Chain of Rocks Road, Mitchell, during the weekend.

La Leche to meet Nov. 3

The La Leche League of Granite City, a non-sectarian, non-profit organization whose purpose is to help encourage "good mothering" through breastfeeding, will meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 3, at 38 Eduardo Drive.

All women who are interested in breastfeeding a child are invited to attend the meeting, according to a spokesman for the local group.

The league's basic meetings are not classes but small groups of mothers sharing encouragement and information related to bearing and caring for children, the spokesman advised.

Further information about the topic may be obtained by calling 931-0774.

MR. AND MRS. HARRY JONES JR., whose wedding was solemnized at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church. Formerly Kathleen Apponey, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Apponey, 2203 Garfield Ave.

Jones-Apponey nuptials at St. Elizabeth Church

Miss Kathleen Apponey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Apponey, 2203 Garfield Ave., became the bride of Harry Jones Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jones, 1947 President St. Louis, on Sept. 26, at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church.

Arrangements of fall flowers and greenery adorned the altar for the 7 p.m. double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Henry Schmidt.

Nuptial selections were provided by Organist Mrs. Eunice Seaman.

The bride wore a formal white organza gown fashioned with a Chantilly lace bodice and sheer bishop sleeves accented with lace motifs.

Her full length skirt was designed with a pleated center panel and a cathedral train featuring lace inserts.

She wore a matching lace edged mantilla fingertip veil and carried a colonial bouquet of autumn flowers. Honor attendant Diane Warchol was gowning in a floral chiffon dress in fall hues. She also held an arrangement of autumn blossoms.

Vincent Wiehardt attended the groom as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at Sonny and Char's Restaurant in Collinsville.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted at Ravanelli's Restaurant.

The newly married couple are now residing in Granite City following a wedding trip to Lexington, Ky.

A graduate of South High School, the bride is currently attending Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and is employed by Schmuck's Markets.

The groom was graduated from Roosevelt High School, St. Louis and he works for Auther Fulmer Co., St. Louis.

Shrine hosts officers party

The October meeting of Gabriel Shrine 78, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, was held at the Masonic Temple with Worth High Priestess Mary Bilbey and Watchman of Shepherds Earl French, presiding.

"All officers night" was the theme of the evening. Supreme Noble Prophetess of the state of Illinois Ruth Hartsoe was the special guest of the evening.

There were 60 supreme committee members, supreme instructors, supreme watchmen of shepherds, past worth high priestesses and watchmen of shepherds escorted.

Among the guests were Arella Hendricks and Dwight Hendricks, Calvary Shrine, Pat Sandifer and Oco Woods, Gaspar Shrine, Harry Jondere, Freedom Shrine, Neoma Gerloff, Faith Shrine, Earline Simpson, Guiding Star Shrine, and Instructress, Louise Grunder, Hannah Shrine.

Those serving as pro tem officers for the meeting were Mary Peterson, Alice Wood and Charles Youngs.

Members reported to be ill included Roland Mueller, Wendell Geritz, Thelma Jansen, Lena Brunagin. Sympathy was extended to Mr. and Mrs. Sadie Jones on the death of her son.

After the business segment a social hour was held in the dining room. The Nov. 13 meeting will be held at the Masonic Temple, it was noted.

Party honors JoAnn Gray

JoAnn Gray celebrated her fifth birthday Thursday night at a party given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gray, 4570 D'Lynn Drive.

A school bus party theme was used throughout the home and a miniature bus topped the decorated cake.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Gus Scaturro of Venice, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Gray of East St. Louis, grandparents of the honoree, Elaine Bellue and Bob Fichte, her godparents and Mary Ann Gray, sister of the guest of honor.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Tony Belue and daughter Cheryl, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Scaturro and children, Tim, Tina and Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Scaturro and son Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Wein and daughter, Denise, Bob Cook, Mr. and Mrs. De Scaturro and daughter Carol, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fichte and son, Danny.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE LYONS.

Their wedding took place at the City Temple, Assembly of God Church. The daughter of Mrs. Doris M. Hayes of St. Louis and George Cook of Granite City, the bride is the former Carrie Lynn Cook.

(Lanamy Studios)

City Temple scene of Lyons-Cook wedding

Miss Carrie Lynn Cook and George E. Lyons were married in a double ring ceremony on Aug. 23, at City Temple Assembly of God Church with the Rev. Eugene Cope officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Doris M. Hayes of St. Louis, and George Cook of Granite City. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Russ Lyons, 3283 Westchester Drive.

Music was provided by Karen Teitloff at the piano and Ed Belling who sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Candlelighters were Leslie Hodshire and Kathy Cook, cousins of the bride.

Escorted to the altar by both parents, the bride wore a floor length gown of white silk organza over taffeta.

The bodice and skirt was accented with re-embroidered Alencon lace and seed pearls and also featured a sweetheart neckline.

The bishop sleeves were enhanced with lace and pearl motifs which was repeated on the full chapel train.

She wore a picture hat adorned with tiers of French bridal illusion and she carried a bouquet of silk fall flowers interspersed with pheasant feathers.

Matron of honor Mrs. Ruth Adams and the bridesmaids, Connie Cook, Cheryl Blake, Becky Gibbs and Mary Doehwat wore identical rust color qiana dresses. They held arrangements of white mums.

The groom chose his brother, Monte Lyons as best man. Groomsmen and ushers included Mark Cain, Bob Miller, Robert Hanam, Jay King, Dan and Darrell Cook, brothers of the bride, Bob and Brian Hill, Rick Harrington and Todd Cunningham.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hayes chose a organza over taffeta qiana gown in shrimp hue and Mrs. Lyons selected a mauve organza over qiana dress.

Both mothers wore corsages of gardenias.

A rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents at Sonny & Char's Restaurant in Collinsville.

Guests were received at a reception held at the American Legion Hall, 1825 State St., immediately following the service.

Tammy Lyons presided over the guest book.

After a wedding trip to Kentucky Lake, the newlyweds are now residing in Tulsa, Okla.

The former Miss Cook was formerly employed at St. Elizabeth Medical Center as a laboratory technician and computer operator. The groom is working as a diesel mechanic for Kenworth Trucking in Tulsa.

MR. AND MRS. GARY SUMMERS

JR., were married in a double ring ceremony at the West 22nd Street Baptist Church. The bride is the former Deborah Renee Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Wells, of Fredericktown, Mo.

Deborah R. Wells and Gary Summers are wed

Wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Deborah Renee Wells of Fredericktown, Mo., and Gary Wayne Summers Jr., of Granite City, on Sept. 27, at the West 22nd Street Baptist Church.

The Rev. Rudolph Noel performed a double ring ceremony at 2 o'clock in the afternoon before an altar decorated with bouquets of pink and blue gladiolus and mums.

Wedding music was furnished by Diane Walker at the organ. Selections included, "If," "Colour My World," "Jean," and "We've Only Just Begun."

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Wells of Fredericktown, Mo., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hancock of Granite City and Mr. and Mrs. Gary W. Summers Sr. of Kansas City, Mo.

The bride was attired in a floor length white peau de soie gown designed with a Sabrina neckline traced with Chantilly lace and long sheer sleeves.

Her semi full skirt was accented with two rows of matching lace at the hemline.

She wore melody length veil of bridal illusion enhanced with a lace border and she carried a tear-drop bouquet of white carnations and baby's breath.

Miss Robin Summers, a sister of the groom, was maid of honor.

She was gowning in white chiffon over pink dress embellished with tiny rosebuds and fashioned with spaghetti straps, gathered bodice and softly flowing skirt encircled with a gathered flounce.

Her nasegay bouquet was an arrangement of pink and white blossoms and she also wore a matching picture hat.

Mark Genesee attended the groom as best man and Rich Wells, a brother of the bride, served as an usher.

Beth Summers presided over the ceremony. Both young people are graduates of South High School. They are now residing in Missouri.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Eye donor program is club topic

Although the Lions Club of Illinois are best known for their Eye Donor Registry program, they also serve the need of all in the community, whether there has been a death in the family, illness, fire—they always have their hands open towards any humanitarian project, said Jim Riskovsky in his talk before the Tri-Cities Chapter, The National Secretaries Association (Int.) at their monthly dinner meeting held at Charlie's Restaurant.

A new tool for working with the blind is their educational program, wherein they furnish cassettes with any kind of learning that the blind would want; how to learn a new job, become secretaries, mechanics, even television technicians. They also have the leader dog program, with a school in Michigan strictly for blind people to attend where the instructor will work with the student just as if the instructor is the dog. They will try to find the type of nature the person is, such as timid, rough, etc. They then try to find a dog that has the same disposition, and match the dog with the student.

Just as polio used to be one of the biggest killers, it is the desire of members of the Lions Club to one day see blindness be on the wane. Through the Eye Donor program in the last ten to fifteen years, scientists and doctors have learned ways of curbing and preventing blindness in people with various types of eye disease, the speaker explained.

He added, contrary to what some people mistakenly believe, no matter what age the individual is, or what condition the eye is in, that eye and that tissue can be used for eye transplant, tissue repair, or eye research. There are certain parts of the eye that can be used in various ways, even the fluid in the eyes.

Riskovsky spoke of the new eye donor program in Granite City which is about three years old, and the obstacles that had to overcome in order to make it succeed. Doctors learned that they were not the only ones who would be responsible for the actual enucleation; a qualified mortician or registered nurse who has taken the course can also perform this vital service. Barnes Hospital in St. Louis has been an eye donor center for a number of years, and it is necessary that the donor eyes be received within a 4-6 hour period. There are hundreds of people on the waiting list for a corneal transplant. Even though an individual may need two transplants, he only receives one and the rest go back on the list until others have had their turn. The supply is so limited, but the demand is so great.

By encouraging others to join them in the Eye Donor program, members of the Lions Club are helping others to enrich their lives through the gift of sight. Those who wish to help in an immediate way can do so by donating used eye glasses in any condition to any member of the Lions Club. These glasses are put to good use in foreign countries where the citizens cannot afford to purchase them.

Over 90 percent of the corneal transplants are successful, the audience was told, and Riskovsky closed his talk by reminding the members that the gift of sight is the most beautiful thing in life; to really appreciate what you have, try covering your eyes and see what beauties you would miss.

Riskovsky, a long-time member of the Madison Lions Club, is the operator of Riskovsky Automotive Engineering at 1300 State Street in Madison. He was accompanied to the meeting by his wife, Pat, a secretary at Ralston Purina Company in St. Louis, and a fellow employee of Program Chairman Mary Gain, who introduced the speaker and his wife.

President Twila Edmonds presided at the business meeting which followed, and reports were heard from Adrienne Warchol, says and means; Helen Gieselman, Madison High School Future Secretaries, and Charlene Yuvonic, Granite City High School-North and South Area chapters. Kathy Smith, membership chairman, announced a new membership contest with chapter members split into teams. The team that brings the most prospective new members to meetings during the months of November, December, February, and March will be rewarded with a prize at the April meeting. Next month's meeting will be held at Charlie's on Thursday, Nov. 6, and reservations can be made through Kathy Smith, at Sobol Realty, or through the Service Committee, Helen Christich and Ruth Houser, or any member of the local

LIONS CLUB EYE DONOR program was the subject of the talk given by Jim Riskovsky at a dinner meeting of the Tri-Cities Chapter, National Secretaries Association. Moose Halloween parade Friday

The traditional Halloween parade, sponsored by Granite City Moose Lodge 272, is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Friday, it was announced by Moose Governor Walter Anders.

Parade chairman, Edward Chastain, said the parade will start in front of the City Hall and proceed south on State street to 19th Street, west along 19th to Niedringhaus Avenue and Cleveland Boulevard, and then return along Niedringhaus to the City Hall steps for judging.

Responsible for selecting the first, second and third place winners in the best-dressed, most comical and most original categories will be Lionel Portell, superintendent of streets, Nick Portell, city treasurer and Robert Stevens, city clerk.

Cash awards of $10, $5 and $4 to first, second and third place, respectively, together with 40 to 50 consolation prizes, will be presented to parade participants, Chastain said.

Paraders are being asked to gather at the steps of the City Hall on Niedringhaus Avenue at 7 p.m. Friday to receive numbers for easier identification during the costume judging.

Thorngate studies herbs

Mrs. Lillian Delps presented a program on herbs and spices, their uses and culture and distributed brochures in relation to the topic at a meeting of the Thorngate Garden Club, last week, held in her home.

She served luncheon from a table centered with a bowl of blue plums and favors of dried herbs in vases at each end of the table completed the decor.

The meeting was called to order by President June Lux with the opening prayer offered by Wanda Kincaid.

Mrs. Kincaid also spoke on the subject, "One Vote Makes a Difference" and Miss Jean Bethal gave a reading on "October" by Reginald Holmes.

Roll call was answered by each one by naming a herb and giving pertinent facts about the selected topic.

Former GC residents mark 69th anniversary

Former Granite City residents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank (Willie) Dunlap, who now reside in Owensboro, Ky., celebrated their 69th wedding anniversary at a family gathering held in their home.

They were married on Oct. 11, 1911.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunlap are the parents of two daughters, Mrs. Louise Foote and Mrs. Thelma Foynter, both of Owensboro. A son, Cecil Dunlap who had lived in Granite City, is now deceased.

The honorees also have seven grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Among the guests attending were Mrs. Nellie Nolan of Granite City, a sister of Mrs. Dunlap, and Mrs. Lucy Griffin of Edwardsville and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Griffin of Granite City.

Halloween decor at club meeting

Halloween decorations in autumn colors were used as the table centerpiece by Mrs. Leona Delaloye for the semi-monthly meeting of the Bunko-Elites Club held in her home.

Those excelling in the games and winning prizes were Rose Drube, Florida Batson, Ruth Partney, Dorothy Barnett and Wanda Pulse, a new member.

Mrs. Delaloye served refreshments after the games to those mentioned and to Helen Lipchik, Julia Portell and May Ebling.

Voters have made it clear they don't think they can afford school repairs, but the problem won't disappear

"It's back to the drawing board, but there's nothing left to draw on. Apparently we just didn't make it clear how badly we need this money. Last year, only the sale of McKinley School kept us going. I don't know where we are going to go; we are just out of money in the building fund," Supt. B. J. Davis commented Saturday night after Granite City school repair and maintenance bond and tax proposals were rejected by voters.

Although there was little vocal opposition during the brief campaign prior to the special election, taxpayers' sentiment was made overwhelmingly clear by the balloting. A ten-cent rate increase in the building fund limit lost 1,337 to 2,845, trailing at all 15 polling places (the district's elementary schools).

At Parkview School, voters tied 172 to 172 on issuing $2,900,000 in bonds to carry out a long list of specific building repairs and improvements. But the school board fell behind at all the other precincts and was defeated overall, 1,532 to 2,686.

Since the twin ballot proposals lost so consistently in the remaining neighborhood, the outcome cannot be considered an upset. Voters clearly are unconvinced that the added funds are essential. Although they were mainly silent about their feelings, they obviously are worried about inflation, extensive unemployment and the ability or inability of their pocketbooks to weather present and future economic storms.

School officials accurately pointed out that the tax rate involved would have been less than that deleted from the school tax when the previous bonds were retired a year ago. But once gaining the rate reduction, voters indicated they did not want to give it up.

From a philosophical standpoint, it seems ironic that voters here—as in many areas of the country—have spoken out so negatively against an instance where they had direct control over the tax level.

The irony is that next week, in the Nov. 4 general election, Americans will vote affirmatively for legislative and executive officials who indirectly spend far more of citizens' tax money than do the school people. Even with the severe federal tax hikes that have occurred as inflation boosted income into higher tax brackets, the public still seems willing to let the tax authority indirectly while asserting a loud "no" to direct tax plans.

From a practical standpoint, the Board of Education and administrators are going to have to "tighten their belt" and curtail school services and facilities in some fashion. They cannot let the school budgets pile up down around students' and teachers' heads nor keep buying more buckets to catch roof and ceiling leaks.

It is hard to visualize precisely how this could be accomplished, there already have been stringent staff cutbacks, and more are going to be considered. Perhaps additional schools will have to be closed, but no logical shutdown has been proposed by anyone not pleased by the previous closings, either.

In any event, the public collectively has voted for tighter budget squeezes than have been occurring, and cannot justifiably complain if such squeezes become increasingly painful.

Children usually get a new and bigger pair when they outgrow their shoes or trousers, but this "remedy"—a new and bigger budget—has been denied to the school system that was created to educate local children. Does anyone have any spare hand-me-downs?

Coal-to-gas plant in this county can aid state, nation

Energy-conscious Quad-Cityans applaud the completion of the final arrangements for a low-BTU coal gasification plant to be located in Madison County.

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the $135 million Kilgas project are planned for this Friday, Oct. 31, at 2:15 p.m. at Illinois Power Company's Wood River generating station.

Allis-Chalmers Corporation will provide $80 million of the cost, the Illinois state government will supply $18 million and Illinois Power will pay $5,500,000; 11 other utilities also are serving as sponsors.

In making the announcement, Governor James R. Thompson noted that, "the Kilgas method offers a clean way to use high-sulfur Illinois coal to produce electricity. We've committed ourselves to a project that will benefit all energy consumers and the economy of the entire state, through the use of more Illinois coal."

The state's contribution will come from the $65 million coal bond fund created in 1974 by the Illinois Coal and Energy Development Bond Act to finance coal development efforts.

Under the initial phase of the program which begins with the construction work this fall, a gasifier will be designed, built, operated and monitored. Clean produced gas derived from Illinois No. 6 coal will be fired in a boiler to generate a maximum of 90 megawatts of electricity in an IP-Wood River generating unit of that size.

The project will utilize 600 tons of Illinois coal daily during the demonstration period. After the technology is proven, commercial application of Kilgas is expected to result in even greater use of this state's vast coal reserves.

Success for the Kilgas plant could mean additional coal investments of $200 million and more than 10,000 new jobs by 1985, the sponsors believe. Also, it is estimated that total Illinois consumption of state coal will increase by 114 million tons between 1985 and 1990 due to Kilgas.

While conceding that the endeavor involves a bit of a gamble, the governor comments, "Kilgas is further developed than most other gasification technologies, and I feel that the participation of utility companies offers strong prospects for commercial adoption."

"Right now, generation costs for Kilgas compare favorably with those of conventional plants with scrubbers. Kilgas is a risk worth taking to keep jobs and dollars in Illinois."

The Kilgas system consists of an Allis-Chalmers-developed rotary kiln in which steam and air are introduced during the coal combustion process.

Sulfur in the coal is converted to hydrogen sulfide gas, and raw low-BTU gas is obtained. The gas then passes through cleaning and heat recovery systems to produce clean low-BTU gas. Development of Kilgas began in 1971 when Allis-Chalmers researched and tested the concept as an extension of its experience in the production of large rotary kilns for metal ore reduction.

Later last year, with the assistance of the group of utilities, the company completed further testing and engineering, resulting in the decision to move forward with the "Wood River plant." The "green light" for the project went on when Allis-Chalmers increased its financial support from $40 million to the $80 million figure.

The $135 million plant cost includes the first two years of operation, 1983 and 1984. The gas will be of a type that can be used not only as fuel for electric power plants but also to help run large industrial plants.

Anticipating successful operation of the Wood River plant, Allis-Chalmers expects to then begin building large-scale Kilgas systems capable of processing 4,000 to 5,000 tons of coal a day into fuel.

Because it did not wait for federal financing, "red tape" and delay, the Madison County coal-to-gas plant is the first of its kind in the field. A field that can mean much to this nation in terms of America regaining energy self-sufficiency.

Long operation of warning lights adds to the danger

It was our sad duty to report Thursday that another fatality had occurred at the Edwardsville Road railroad crossing near 14th Street. A 25-year-old Missouri motorist lost his life when his eastbound pickup truck collided with a slow-moving northbound railroad engine; it required 87 minutes to free him from the wreckage, and he was pronounced dead at the scene.

The crossing is a major hazard for local and out-of-town drivers, not just during Halloween week and not just make-believe. We recall covering numerous fatal and near-fatal crashes here over a long period of years.

"The crossing is 'protected' by flashing red lights, but that's a big part of the hazard. The signal operates so much of the time—including long periods when no trains are visible—that most motorists feel they are forced to stop, look, listen and then venture across despite the warning lights.

After repeated experiences of this nature, some may be lulled into complacency and try to cross the tracks without much of a pause to peer into the darkness to the left and right. At the time of the fatal crash, rain was falling, and a night, an accident only seemed to be a matter of time.

A study of how to make the crossing safer is long overdue. The study might well include improved nighttime illumination of the tracks north and south of Edwardsville Road, and plans for the use of a method of limiting operation of the flashing lights to the actual times when a switch train is nearing the crossing.

A National Town Meeting "poverty teach-in" is in progress at SIUE, with workshops today, folksinger Barbara Hanalek entertaining at 6:30 tonight, in Goshen Lounge and Tom Hayden speaking on "Economic Democracy" at 7 tonight in the Madison Room of the University Center. Tomorrow, there will be workshops on federal funds at 10 a.m., coping with inflation at 11:30 and student financial aid at 1:30, with a film on hunger at 3 p.m. Topics Wednesday will be winter shut-offs and weatherization at 1:30 and poverty at 3, with Dick Gregory speaking at 7 p.m. in the Madison Room on "Global Aspects of Poverty."

Belleville Area College teachers went home Thursday evening after occupying the building for the first time Wednesday night in a contract dispute in which they allege harassment. Acting President Bruce Wissors will confer with faculty representatives in a pre-negotiation meeting at 2:30 p.m. today. Classes are continuing.

Illinois Transportation Department officials have been buying gasoline and garage services from former State Rep. A. C. Bartulis, a Republican, while he is a $19,800 a year Illinois Commerce Commission transportation analyst. Saying he does not recall his service station to see who is patronizing it, Bartulis estimates that the most he could have profited from state business during the last two years is $250.

A survey of Madison County medical society members shows 78 percent of those answering say the county tuberculosis clinic should maintain a full staff and that its budget can be cut without impairing services; 76 percent feel the county should test tuberculosis using private physicians and existing hospitals instead of the clinic.

Led by rising food costs, inflation rose 1 percent in September, a 127 percent compound annual inflation rate. From January to September, consumer prices have climbed 12.1 percent at an annual rate.

Marion federal prison inmates, in their strike's sixth week, have said they seek revision of parole classification, religious and athletic programs, and visitation space and frequency.

A hearing is set for tomorrow at the Madison County Courthouse on access to court documents tracing judges' sentencing practices.

The Rockford Register-Star has endorsed independent candidate John B. Peterson for president. The Peterson Journal-Star has endorsed Edward Clark of the Libertarian Party for the White House. Pres. Jimmy Carter continues to lead Ronald Reagan in Illinois polls, but there are enough doubts to give the Nov. 4 outcome uncertain. Surveys show most Madison County voters may support Reagan.

Bi-State Development Agency commissioners on Friday called for new bids for security guard service for bus garages, airport facilities and offices, replacing the low bid from Sentry Security Agency on providing the entire service for two years, and opposing the contract between Sentry and black-owned AAA Security, which was low bidder on N. Broadway, Hall Street and DeBaltre garage guards. Bi-State will split the next specifications into at least two parts to encourage minority firms to bid. Bus riders in September were up 14.4 percent from July but 11.4 percent below last November.

Raymond J. Patterson, 37, St. Louis, was indicted Friday in Edwardsville for rape and sexual assault May 17 against a woman in the basement of her Alton home. He was arrested Nov. 21 and could receive six to 30 years in prison. A mistrial was declared in his first trial. Patterson, a Rangoon, Sexual Abuse Care Center trainee spoke with jurors.

MELVIN PRICE

By BILL WINTER,
of the Press-Record

Considered a liberal to moderate legislator, 36-year Congressman Melvin Price is favored to win a 19th consecutive two-year term Nov. 4. The 75-year-old Democrat has been chairman of the powerful U. S. House Armed Services Committee for the past six years.

Opposing him is a conservative Republican, Ronald L. Davinroy, 41. A resident of O'Fallon, Davinroy has been waging an aggressive campaign but has been unable to obtain a joint appearance by Price in a forum or debate.

Both nominees in the 23rd Illinois Congressional District have close ties to the armed services. Price was serving during World War II in the Army at the time he was elected to Congress in 1944. Davinroy is a former Navy combat pilot. The 23rd District consists of all of St. Clair County and the southern part of Madison County, including the Quad-City area.

Former chairman of the House-Senate Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, and former chairman of the House Committee on Standards of Official Conduct, Price is one of the most knowledgeable of all federal legislators on technical matters related to the defense of the United States as well as being near the top in Illinois seniority.

Upon being re-elected this year, he would become the second-ranking member of Congress among the 435.

Price has a reputation of accomplishing more tangible results with less effort and time than most members of Congress, due to his experience, contacts and insight into how governmental processes function.

His efforts have been credited with playing a key role in maintaining Scott Air Force Base as one of the principal Air Force centers in the world.

Granite City Army Installation has played a decreasing role over the years as the Defense Department sought periodically to reduce numbers and scope of its domestic bases, but Price has been successful in freeing the southern third of the former engineering depot for industrial development by Granite City, Madison and the Tri-City Regional Port.

A native of East St. Louis, he attended parochial schools there and took outstanding courses at St. Louis University High School and St. Louis University.

Price worked as a newspaper reporter in East St. Louis before being elected to the St. Clair County Board of Supervisors. After a term on the county board, he served as secretary of the late Congressman Edwin M. Schaefer of the old 22nd District.

Married and the father of one son, Cong. Price is a member of numerous civic and fraternal groups and of the National Press Club. Dedicated to the concept of a strong military, naval and air defense, the congressman also devotes much of his time to constituents' needs, pledging to encourage federal agencies to operate "efficiently and fairly in administering all programs."

He is the dean of the 24-member Illinois Congressional delegation and says he is in good health, having missed only three weeks on the House floor or in committee sessions because of illness during his 36 years in Congress.

Price actively supports development of Illinois coal resources, and was among those instrumental in encouraging the start of work to replace the present Alton lock and dam facilities.

He says, "The future of our nation depends on coal and nuclear energy."

In January 1979, he received special recognition from the Retired Officers Association for "distinguished service to the nation" and "long and valuable service to the people and the people."

Both Nov. 4 candidates overcame opposition in the March primary to earn positions on the general election ballot.

Davinroy, married and the father of three children, is a lifelong St. Clair County resident who is a sales manager with the electric motors division of Emerson Electric Co.

His goals in Congress would include reducing the federal debt and balancing the government budget. He would seek to defend free enterprise from excessive taxation and regulation.

Davinroy, a graduate engineer who attended the University of Missouri at Rolla, served two combat tours in Vietnam as a Navy aviator.

He is "committed to a strong national defense, re-establishing American military superiority, and support for the right-to-life amendment."

"I hold big government deficit spending responsible as the major cause of inflation. By ending 'government for the sake of government,' we can regain a prosperous and growing economy," Davinroy asserts.

"We are maintaining an expensive bureaucracy which continues to thrive in Washington while large numbers of people in the 23rd District are out of work. 'Working for freedom and Christianity and restoring our national pride are high purposes worthy of my total efforts,' he sums up.

While Davinroy has respect for Price's long service to the nation and the district, the challenger says that in most cases the congressman has voted the opposite of the way Davinroy would have voted.

And Davinroy disagrees with Cong. Price's 1976 statements citing "inflation, unemployment and our position as a world leader" as reasons why Jimmy Carter should be elected to a first term as president.

"Average earning power is lower than at the end of the Kennedy-Johnson era," Price warned four years ago in backing Carter. "A Democratic victory won't solve our problems overnight, but it will get us back on the right track. Democrats stand for the people and the people will put Jimmy Carter in the White House and Mike Howlett in the governor's mansion."

Cong. Price is right about Pres. Carter reaching the Oval Office but wrong about Howlett's gubernatorial aspirations. And Davinroy is convinced that the Carter administration has been a disaster from all the standpoints that were cited— inflation, unemployment, earning power and the position of America as a world leader.

National Steel loses $42 million in third quarter

Pittsburgh — National Steel Corp. Thursday reported a third-quarter loss of $42 million, or $2.08 per share, which includes $21.1 million, or $1.11 per share, for the permanent shutdown of the company's steel materials facilities.

This compares with earnings of $39.2 million, or $2.08 per share, in the third quarter of last year when shipments were at substantial levels.

Nine months earnings were $68.4 million, or $3.60 per share, compared with $108.2 million, or $5.46 per share, in the year-earlier period.

"The loss is attributable to the unprecedented decline in steel demand and severe price discounting in the marketplace, which further reduced sales and profits," said a spokesman.

Steel plants are operating below 50 percent of capacity, it simply is not possible to make more, despite the most stringent cost-reduction programs," said Raymond J. Patterson, chief executive officer.

Howard M. Love, Third-quarter sales and other income of $87.2 million were down 22 percent from $1.1 billion in the comparable 1979 quarter. For the first nine months of 1980, sales and other income totaled $2.9 billion, 12 percent below the $3.3 billion in the comparable 1979 period.

Raw steel production and shipments fell for both the third quarter and first nine months. Production in the third quarter of this year was down 48 percent to 1.4 million tons, the lowest amount since 1969, versus 2.7 million tons produced in the third quarter of last year. For the first nine months, production declined 36 percent to 5.5 million tons versus 8.5 million tons in the similar period last year. Shipments declined 31 percent to 1.4 million tons in the third quarter, which is near the low level of 1969, versus 2.1 million tons in the third quarter of 1979. For the first nine months of 1980, shipments declined 27 percent to 4.7 million tons versus 6.5 million tons in the comparable year-earlier period.

The permanent shutdown of three raw materials facilities will result in improved profitability and cash flow for National's raw materials division. Two iron ore mines and pellet plants near Pilot Knob, Mo., and Capreol, Ontario, have approached the end of their useful lives and are uneconomical to operate under current economic conditions.

"The general weakness of the economy during the recession affected not only our primary steelmaking facilities but also our raw materials operations and our manufacturing and distribution divisions," said Patterson.

Particularly hard-hit was the Great Lakes Steel Division, near Detroit, which felt the full effect of sharply reduced automotive sales and record high levels of imported car sales.

"In addition, foreign steel imports continued to take a disproportionately high level of sales during this weak period. Good performance by our aluminum operations and financial subsidiary were among the few bright spots in the third quarter," said Love.

"It appears that the worst is behind us. Orders and bookings are continuing to improve as we move into the fourth quarter, but shipments will still be below the fourth quarter of last year. The customer inventory reduction program is continuing to gain momentum. Orders are being placed on a short lead-time basis in line with customer production requirements. There appears to be growing strength from a broad base of markets, although automotive steel demand remains sluggish. In mill shipments in the fourth quarter will be at good levels."

In order to meet the gradually increasing demand, and to replenish inventories, National brought back into production two of its five idled blast furnaces in mid-October. Located at the Weirton Steel

In order to meet the gradually increasing demand, and to replenish inventories, National brought back into production two of its five idled blast furnaces in mid-October. Located at the Weirton Steel

Divisions; they bring the number of operating furnaces to seven. More than 2,000 employees at its steelmaking plants have been recalled in recent weeks from the peak layoff level of over 6,000 in August, the company reported.

"Our major modernization program at the Granite City Steel Division will be complete near year-end, providing National with its third continuous slab caster and a bottom-blown basic oxygen furnace shop. This program will give National the ability to produce continuously cast slabs for more than 50 percent of its shipments in 1981 and achieve significant improvements in yield, operating efficiency, productivity and quality," Love concluded.

Sen. Percy, Gov. Thompson among visitors this week

A quick look at the schedule in any newspaper office would indicate that the Nov. 4 election is only days away and the candidates realize it.

Three "distinguished guests," including the President of the United States, are to be in town in the next seven days.

The "visitors list" begins with Republican U.S. Sen. Charles Percy, who is due here Wednesday afternoon. Specific plans for Percy's visit have not been announced. "Big Jim," Governor James Thompson, is scheduled to address a 4:30 p.m. rally at Nameeki Village Shopping Center near the Nameeki Cinema. The week will end with a scheduled visit by President Jimmy Carter next Monday, the day before the Nov. 4 election. A story on Carter's visit appears on today's front page.

"Poverty Teach-In," a three-day program aimed at raising the awareness of poverty, will be held at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, tonight through Wednesday.

Sponsored by four student organizations — National Town Meeting (NTM), United Campus Ministry, University Center Board and Black Student Association — the event will feature speakers, films, workshops and musical entertainment. Highlighting the program will be appearances by Tom Hayden and Dick Gregory. Hayden will speak on the topic, "Economic Democracy," tonight at 7 in the University Center's Madison Room.

Hayden, who is actress Jane Fonda's husband, is a civil rights activist and head of the California organization, Campaign Group for Economic Democracy (CED).

Gregory will speak on the topic, "Global Aspects of Poverty," Wednesday at 7 p.m. in the Madison Room. Originally from East St. Louis, Gregory had dedicated his life to eliminating hunger and poverty. He started his career in 1961 as a black comedian and has written eight books and released several political commentary albums. In 1976, he ran 600 miles from Chicago to Washington, D.C., to call attention to world hunger. Admission to hear these two speakers is free for students with SIUE identification and $1 for non-students. All the other events are free and also open to the public.

Safir Ahmed, spokesperson for NTM, said the program will look at the extent of poverty in the United States and the world, the government response to poverty on local, state and national levels, and methods available for controlling poverty.

"Poverty is something easy to ignore," said Ahmed. "Most people who don't live at the poverty level never come in contact with the problem. The poverty areas are hidden and tucked away in the corners."

"We want to give a good overview of what poverty is and who it affects," Ahmed continued.

A canned food drive also is being initiated to raise awareness of the poverty problem. Ahmed said goods will be collected until Dec. 12 and will be distributed at Christmas time to needy people in the St. Louis metropolitan area.

Canned foods should be brought to the NTM office, which is located in the student activities wing on the first floor of the university center, Ahmed said.

For a more detailed schedule of events or for additional information, interested persons may contact the NTM office at 1-682-3382.

Assigned to Chanute base

Airman Craig S. Knight, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Knight of Granite City, has been assigned to Chanute Air Force Base, Rantoul, Ill., after completing Air Force basic training.

During the six weeks at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special training in human relations.

In addition, airmen who complete basic training earn credits toward an associate degree in applied science through the Community College of the Air Force.

The airman will now receive specialized instruction in the aircraft maintenance field.

Troop 7 Boy Scouts at council campout

Boy Scouts of Troop 7, celebrating mass at camporee, sponsored by St. Joseph's Catholic Church, joined with some 20 other troops of the council in attending the 1980 Cahokia Mound Council Fall Camporee — Camping Adventure — at SIU in Edwardsville.

Troop activities included: obstacle course (knot tying, softball throw), first aid (cardiopulmonary resuscitation, the Heimlich method, mouth-to-mouth first aid and bandages), pioneering (wilderness shelters, traps and compass), Indian lore (trail signs, edible plants and animal tracks) and exploring (stars and semaphores). Transportation for the camporee was arranged by transportation chairman Larry J. Falbe. Parents providing transportation were Karl Markovich Sr., Carl Kittel, Joanne Brandon, Larry Williamson, Joseph Barron, Hugh Jordan and Theodore Brazel.

This camping trip marked the 25th final night of camping in the current charter year. The new charter year for Troop 7 begins on Nov. 1 and will feature 28 nights of camping, beginning with "the barn camping adventure" in December.

Other Scouts had the opportunity to meet requirements for various skill awards and merit badges. The council campfire theme was "Spooktacular Camporee" and prizes were awarded to scouts for the best-dressed and most original costumes.

Scout Mark Brazel earned second place in the contest. Father Joe Lawless, M.S.F., chaplain at St. Elizabeth, Medical Center and associate pastor of the troop's sponsor, St. Joseph's Catholic Church, celebrated mass for the scouts of Troop 7 and other Catholic scouts attending camporee.

Boy Scout Jeff Kittel and Webelos Scout Joey Kusmierczak, assisted at Mass. Scouts Kusmierczak Jr. and Kevin Williamson were gift bearers at Mass.

Father Lawless was presented the camporee patch in appreciation for his time given to the troop in

Pontoon Halloween parade

The Third Annual Halloween parade, sponsored by the Pontoon Beach Lionsess Club, will be held Thursday at the Gaslight Plaza Shopping Center. Registration will be at 6 p.m. and the parade is for children ages 1 through 13. Each child must be accompanied by a parent.

The judging will be in three age categories; ages 1 to 5; 6 through 9, and 10 through 13.

First, second and third places will be awarded in each age group. Plus, there will be prizes for the best overall costume and most original overall costume.

3 Injured at Madison-20th

Three persons were injured at 11:55 a.m. Wednesday in a collision on Madison Avenue at 20th Street.

Police said an auto operated by Stanley D. Sugg, 535 Tennessee Ave., Mitchell, turned north from the Clark service station onto Madison Avenue when a collision resulted with another auto driven by Charles L. Grass Jr. of Belleville, which was southbound.

Sugg and a passenger in his auto, Missy Gribble, 2522 Madison Ave., were injured. Steve Moly, 36, of Collinsville, a passenger in the Grass vehicle, also sustained an injury, it was reported.

BATTERY ARREST

Jack Shelton, 60, of 2437 Wilson Ave., was arrested at home and charged with battery at 6:45 p.m. Thursday, after he allegedly struck Norma Shelton of the same address on the head and she signed a complaint.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

RE: Service changes to be implemented December 1, 1980.

1. Notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held by Bi-State Development Agency for the purpose of considering changes in bus service which are proposed to be implemented on December 1, 1980. The public hearing will be at the Ambassador Building, 411 North 7th Street, Room 1105, St. Louis, Missouri on Wednesday, November 12, 1980 at 7:00 p.m. The December 1, 1980 service changes are generally described below.

A. Description of Program:
1. It is proposed to modify twenty-seven (27) Missouri routes:
a. Recroute one (1) local route:
No. 12 Florissant-McDonnell Orbit will be expanded to expand its service area.

b. Service frequency will be decreased on twenty-six (26) local and express routes.
Service frequency will decrease by one to five minutes during peak periods on the No. 18 Taylor (PM); No. 30 Cass (PM); No. 40 Broadway (AM); No. 49 Linenger; No. 52 Forest Park; No. 70 Grand; No. 74 Florissant (PM); No. 80 Hampton (PM); No. 81 Lindell; No. 85 Kingshighway; No. 86X Northside Express; No. 88X Northside Rapid; No. 89X Brentwood Express (PM); No. 89X Southampton Express; No. 91X Delmar Express (PM, weeknights); No. 92 Jamieson Express; No. 93X Lindell Express (PM); No. 94 Page Express (both flow and reverse flow directions); No. 104X Natural Bridge Express (PM); No. 108 South Grand Express; No. 112X Shrewsbury Express.

Service frequency will decrease by seven to ten minutes on the No. 91X Delmar Express (PM, eastbound, 10 minutes); No. 74X Berkeley Rapid (AM, 7 minutes); and No. 132X Ashby Rapid (AM, 8 minutes).

Service frequency will change on the No. 02 Florissant Hazelwood (from 60 to 120 minutes all day) and No. 24 Morganford Union (from 30 to 45 minutes) during peak periods.

2. It is proposed to modify six (6) routes in Illinois:
a. Recroute trips on one (1) local route:
No. Collinsville-Edwardsville will have all extensions to the Mart Building, in downtown St. Louis, deleted due to the transfer of federal employees.

b. Service frequency will decrease on five (5) local routes.
Peak period service frequency will decrease by one to three minutes on the No. 601 Belleville St. Louis; No. 702 Rosemont (AM); No. 703 Washington Park (AM); and No. 706 Alla.

Service frequency will decrease on No. 512 College Central from 30 to 60 minutes all day.

3. Bi-State's service area includes St. Louis City, St. Louis County and Jefferson and St. Charles counties in Missouri; and Madison, St. Clair and Monroe counties in Illinois.

The estimated transit operating budget for FY 1981 is $94,134,554. Of this amount, $20,615,235 will be provided by the Urban Mass Transportation Administration, $9,211,000 will be provided by the Illinois Department of Transportation, $274,000 will be provided by miscellaneous sources, $23,818,556 will be provided by passenger revenue and $40,220,463 will be provided by local funding sources.

Local funding for this project will be provided from funds collected through the Missouri half-cent transportation sales tax.

B. Relocation
No persons, families, or businesses will be displaced by this program.

C. Environment
This program will not have a significant environmental impact upon the urban service area.

D. Comprehensive Planning
This program is in conformance with comprehensive land use and transportation planning in the St. Louis area and is consistent with the adopted programming of projects in the transportation improvement program.

E. Elderly and Handicapped
The design of the program contained herein will take into consideration the special needs of the elderly and handicapped. Accessibility of bus facilities by all St. Louis area residents will be a primary design objective.

F. Charter Bus Operations
Bi-State Development Agency does not engage in any charter services outside of the St. Louis Missouri Metropolitan District (inclusive of Alton, Illinois).

G. School Bus Service
Bi-State Development Agency does not engage in any school bus operations exclusively for the transportation of students or school personnel.

H. At the hearings, Bi-State Development Agency will afford an opportunity for interested persons or agencies to be heard with respect to the social, environmental, and economic aspects of the program. Interested persons may submit orally or in writing, evidence and recommendations with respect to said program.

DOCUMENTS may be examined at the following locations:

a) City Engineer's Office, City Hall, Room 104, No. 7 Collinsville Ave., East St. Louis, Ill. 62201.

MICHAEL RICHARDSON, a cub scout in Pack 141 of Mitchell School, receiving the God and Family award from his pastor, the Rev. Paul Bower of Briarcliff Pentecostal Church.

Cub Scout earns award

Cub Scout Michael Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Richardson, 777B Carolyn Drive, was presented with the God and Family award at a meeting of Cub Scout Pack 141 of Mitchell School.

The Rev. Paul Bower of Briarcliff Pentecostal Church presented the award. Webel Den 1 presented the flag ceremony to open the meeting. Both cubs and parents sang "God Bless America." All the officers for this year were announced by Cubmaster Jim Richardson as this was the first meeting of this school year. Richardson also reviewed the summertime activities the pack sponsored which included a fishing derby, summer day camp, and a Cardinal baseball game. Den 3 served refreshments.

Those receiving awards were: Jeff Meyers, Webel colors and athlete pin; Lynnie Whiteside and Gene McIntosh, athlete activity badge; Eric LaVelle, summertime activity award and a recruiting award; Ronnie Trimmer, Phillip Simpson and Joe Whyers, summertime activity award; Jimmie Dillard, Darren Yates, David Dunlap, Sean Bain, Wally Johnson, Joey Lee, John Redstone, Benjamin Bauer, Bobcat badges.

Plans were discussed for a hayride in October. The night of the hayride there will also be a bonfire and weiner roast. For the October pack meeting the boys are to dress in costume to be judged and prizes awarded. There will also be prizes for decorating jack-o-lanterns, Richardson said. At the pack meeting the boys competed for physical fitness. The boys getting the highest number of points will be eligible to go to SUE to compete with other cub scouts for awards. The winning boys were: Lynnie Whiteside, 10-years old; Joe Hickum, 9-years old; Jerry Richardson, 8-years old.

Sheriff endorses Byron

Madison County Sheriff Emil Toffant has given his "full and complete endorsement" to the reelection of Madison County State's Attorney Nicholas Byron.

In making his endorsement, Sheriff Toffant cited "100 percent cooperation from Mr. Byron's office with the sheriff's department."

The sheriff also said, "I believe, Byron is a law and order candidate and I will work for his reelection."

Singers perform at SUE Tuesday

The third of the Centre Stage fall series concerts at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will be presented Tuesday at 11 a.m. by Tom McCoy and Mike Blevins.

McCoy will perform from 11 to 11:30 a.m. and noon to 12:30 p.m., while Blevins is scheduled from 11:30 a.m. to 12 noon and 12:30 to 1 p.m. The concert will be in the DeJa Vu Room, which is adjacent to the Sub-Meridian Dock in the basement of the University Center. Sponsored by the University Center Board, it is free and open to the public.

McCoy and Blevins are both SUE students. Steve Gray, programming adviser for the UCB, said McCoy plays guitar and banjo and sings "easy listening" type music. "He has played a lot of clubs in the St. Louis area," said Gray, adding, "He does a lot of sing-alongs with the audience."

Blevins is a folk-type singer who accompanies himself with the guitar. "I know he writes a lot of his own material," Gray added. Additional information about the concert series is available by calling the UCB at 1-682-2617.

GOLD AWARDS are presented to representatives of companies and an organization for 100 percent participation in this year's United Way campaign by James Eisenbeis, third from left, general chairman. From left are: Robert McMillan, Illinois-American Water Co.; Mrs.

Margaret Lee, First National Bank in Madison; Eisenbeis; Mrs. Donna Lowry, executive director of the River Bluffs Girl Scout Council, and Mrs. Tillie Norberg of the Norberg Department Store. The fall campaign now stands at $281,335 or 41 percent of the goal.

UW drive nears halfway point

Optimism was voiced by James Eisenbeis, general chairman of the 1980 United Way campaign, last week as the various division heads reported their respective totals, which included pledges received during the previous two-week period.

Each of the six divisions reported marked increases, especially Group "E," industry, construction and transportation, headed by Robert Jackson, which jumped from 28.1 percent of its goal of $130,885 at the first report meeting to a division high percentage of 54.4 or $71,271.

The United Way campaign now stands at 41 percent or $281,335. Group "D," business and professional, headed by Mrs. Margaret Lee, increased its pledges nearly ten-fold from $1,978 for the first reporting period to $19,801 at the second report meeting for a total of $21,579 or 31.1 percent.

Other groups reporting were: "A" with $3,363, 40.8 percent; "B" with $14,906, 31.9; "C" with $18,084, 32.7, and Group "F" with $157,132 or 40.2 percent.

Gold awards were presented to the Illinois-American Water Co., Norberg Department Store and the First National Bank in Madison, in addition to the River Bluffs Girl Scout Council.

Others receiving gold awards for 100 percent participation in the fall campaign were: Bulk Service Corp., Holiday Mobile Home Park and Sales, Tri-City Printing Co., Royce Realty Inc., Visiting Nurses' Association, and O'Brien Tire and Battery Service.

Those receiving silver awards were the Venice Township staff, Travelodge of Granite City and Chain of Rocks Motel.

The next report meeting will be on Wednesday, Nov. 5, at noon at the YMCA. Lunch will be "Dutch treat."

16th annual reading conference Nov. 1

A California teacher who leads her own crusade for literacy will be the keynote speaker Saturday, Nov. 1, for the 16th annual reading conference at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Jo M. Stanchfield, professor of education at Occidental College in Los Angeles and author of a series of readers based on her original research, will give two major addresses in Meridian Ballroom of the University Center.

Her topics are "Self Renewal, Coping with Stress in the Classroom" at 8:30 a.m. and "Teaching to a Different Drummer, Motivating Students," at 10:45 a.m.

Prof. Stanchfield, a past president of the California Reading Association which she helped establish, worries that "today's high schools are graduating millions who cannot read and write." The nation is also losing too many teachers who feel they cannot cope, she said.

She believes every child can learn by listening, speaking, writing, and reading together, using a basic, systematic approach. In the process, she wants to put "joy" back in the classroom, for both the reading teacher and the student.

Registration for the morning conference, sponsored by the reading faculty of the SIUE School of Education, will begin at 8 a.m. in the University Center. A special book hour between 9:45 and 10:45 a.m. is to be reserved for browsing through publishers' exhibits, but the displays will be open throughout the conference in the University Center lobby.

Local educators will lead small group sessions for primary, intermediate, secondary and adult education levels in the River Rooms between 11:45 and 12:45. Conferees will have a choice of topics, from tips on motivating readers and keeping groups flexible, to developing self-esteem in the discouraged learner or succeeding with silent reading.

To register, interested persons may contact Dartha Starr, SIUE Reading Center director and conference chairman, at 692-3596. Admission is $5; it is $2 for undergraduates with identification.

Parking is free except in metered spaces. Doughnuts, sandwiches, coffee and soda will be sold during conference hours.

Eilerman re-elected

Anthony L. Bunker, administrator of DePaul Community Health Center, was re-elected chairman of the board of directors of the Hospital Association of Metropolitan St. Louis at a meeting last week.

Other association officers re-elected for the coming year are Vice Chairman Paul H. Wunderlich, president and chief executive officer of St. Luke's Hospital; Secretary Norman E. McCann, executive director of Missouri Baptist Hospital; and Treasurer Theodore Eilerman, executive vice president of St. Elizabeth medical center in Granite City.

The Hospital Association is a voluntary, not-for-profit organization of hospitals in the St. Louis area. Its primary mission is to assist hospitals in serving the people of their community in the most efficient and economical manner possible.

Through the association, representatives of 48 member hospitals work toward solutions to common problems and conduct programs to benefit their institutions and the public. Association activities cover all aspects of hospital operation and management, including planning, cost finding, education, government relations, professional services, and operation of emergency service programs which have saved the public in excess of $4.5 million in 1979.

High school seniors who are interested in beginning their college careers with Air Force Reserve Officers' Training Corps four-year college scholarships should apply this fall, according to Col. Hugh D. McCracken Jr., Air Force ROTC registrar.

Applications for four-year scholarships starting in the 1981-82 academic year must be submitted to Air Force ROTC headquarters at Maxwell Air Force Base, Ala., by Jan. 15, 1981.

Weather phones open Saturday

The Illinois State Police will again this winter utilize special weather phones which have been installed at all State Police district headquarters, starting Saturday.

The weather phones will provide the public with current Illinois highway conditions. This service is provided from Nov. 1, through April 15 each year. The pre-recorded report is updated daily at 5 a.m., 11 a.m., 4 p.m. and 9 p.m., or more frequently, if weather or road conditions change.

These weather phones were installed to provide motorists with accurate information about highway conditions, and at the same time, keep regular police telephone lines open for emergency calls.

The number for this area is 345-1330.

Street safety stressed this week at SIU campus

This week has been proclaimed National Safety on the Streets Week, according to Charles McDonald, director of university police at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

McDonald said the designation is especially appropriate because Halloween is celebrated during the week, adding to the number of persons outdoors during evening hours.

The university police will be placing special emphasis on enforcing traffic speed limits and pedestrian safety on campus during the week, McDonald said.

He added, "Pedestrians, including bikers and joggers, are reminded to carry or wear something white or reflective at night to help motorists see them. Where there is not a sidewalk, and it is necessary to walk in a roadway, pedestrians and joggers are advised to walk on the left side, facing traffic. Bikers are reminded to obey all traffic laws and signals."

McDonald also said "trick or treaters" should be reminded to carefully check all candy and food collected on Halloween excursions. Parents are encouraged to have their children take advantage of Halloween parties sponsored by schools, churches or civic organizations in lieu of door-to-door solicitations.

For emergency service, Illinois Power is always open

As a business, Illinois Power's office near you has regular hours for serving customers' routine needs. But, unlike most businesses, Illinois Power is always open to provide emergency service.

Anytime of the day or night, every day of the year, you'll always get emergency help by dialing our local office. Illinois Power's Emergency Service Representatives keep our phone lines manned at all times. And they have modern communications facilities to dispatch service crews to any customer.

While we constantly maintain our system, we also need our customers' help to report any sudden emergencies. That helps us take care of the problem quickly. So remember, in an emergency involving your utility service, help is at hand anytime by calling Illinois Power.

Call our office anytime, day or night . . .

- ☐ to report a gas leak,
- ☐ a power outage,
- ☐ an electric line down, or any emergency involving your utility service

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT BALLOT
PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO
SECTIONS 1, 2 AND 3 OF ARTICLE IV
(Legislative Article)

Explanation of Proposed Amendment

The purpose of the Amendment is to reduce the size of the House of Representatives from 177 to 118 members and to provide for the election of one Representative from each of 118 districts.

For the proposed Amendment to Sections 1, 2 and 3 of Article IV of the Constitution (Legislative Article).	YES	5
	NO	6

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO
SECTION 8 OF ARTICLE IX
(Delinquent Tax Sale)

Explanation of Proposed Amendment

The proposed Amendment deals only with the problem of long-term tax delinquency on commercial, industrial, vacant non-farm, and large multi-unit residential properties. It has no effect on single-family homes, farms, or apartment buildings containing 6 or less units.

The present Illinois law attempts to place long-standing tax delinquent properties back on the tax rolls after 5 or more years of non-payment of property taxes by the owner. To this end, the county treasurer conducts an auction, or "scavenger sale", at which the high bidder receives a tax sale certificate.

Following the scavenger sale, the Constitution now guarantees the delinquent owner 2 years to redeem or buy back the property. The high bidder cannot obtain title to the property until after this 2-year redemption period has elapsed.

The proposed Amendment would allow the General Assembly to reduce the 2-year redemption period to no less than 90 days following the scavenger sale.

For the proposed Amendment to Section 8 of Article IX of the Constitution to authorize the General Assembly to reduce the redemption period following certain tax sales which occur after property taxes have not been paid for (5) years.	YES	17

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT BALLOT PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SECTIONS 1, 2 AND 3 OF ARTICLE IV (Legislative Article)

Explanation of Proposed Amendment

The purpose of the Amendment is to reduce the size of the House of Representatives from 177 to 118 members and to provide for the election of one Representative from each of 118 districts.

For the proposed Amendment to Sections 1, 2 and 3 of Article IV of the Constitution (Legislative Article).	YES	5
	NO	6

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SECTION 8 OF ARTICLE IX (Delinquent Tax Sale)

Explanation of Proposed Amendment

The proposed Amendment deals only with the problem of long-term tax delinquency on commercial, industrial, vacant non-farm, and large multi-unit residential properties. It has no effect on single-family homes, farms, or apartment buildings containing 6 or less units.

The present Illinois law attempts to place long-standing tax delinquent properties back on the tax rolls after 5 or more years of non-payment of property taxes by the owner. To this end, the county treasurer conducts an auction, or "scavenger sale", at which the high bidder receives a tax sale certificate.

Following the scavenger sale, the Constitution now guarantees the delinquent owner 2 years to redeem or buy back the property. The high bidder cannot obtain title to the property until after this 2-year redemption period has elapsed.

The proposed Amendment would allow the General Assembly to reduce the 2-year redemption period to no less than 90 days following the scavenger sale.

For the proposed Amendment to Section 8 of Article IX of the Constitution to authorize the General Assembly to reduce the redemption period following certain tax sales which occur after property taxes have not been paid for (5) years.	YES	17

The present Illinois law attempts to place long-standing tax delinquent properties back on the tax rolls after 5 or more years of non-payment of property taxes by the owner. To this end, the county treasurer conducts an auction, or "scavenger sale", at which the high bidder receives a tax sale certificate.

Following the scavenger sale, the Constitution now guarantees the delinquent owner 2 years to redeem or buy back the property. The high bidder cannot obtain title to the property until after this 2-year redemption period has elapsed.

The proposed Amendment would allow the General Assembly to reduce the 2-year redemption period to no less than 90 days following the scavenger sale.

For the proposed Amendment to Section 8 of Article IX of the Constitution to authorize the General Assembly to reduce the redemption period following certain tax sales which occur after property taxes have not been paid for (5) years.	YES	17

Explanation of Proposed Amendment

The purpose of the Amendment is to reduce the size of the House of Representatives from 177 to 118 members and to provide for the election of one Representative from each of 118 districts.

For the proposed Amendment to Sections 1, 2 and 3 of Article IV of the Constitution (Legislative Article).	YES	5
	NO	6

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SECTION 8 OF ARTICLE IX (Delinquent Tax Sale)

Explanation of Proposed Amendment

The proposed Amendment deals only with the problem of long-term tax delinquency on commercial, industrial, vacant non-farm, and large multi-unit residential properties having no effect on single-family homes, farms, or apartment buildings containing 6 or less units.

The present Illinois law attempts to place long-standing tax delinquent properties back on the tax rolls after 5 or more years of non-payment of property taxes by the owner. To this end, the county treasurer conducts an auction, or "scavenger sale", at which the high bidder receives a tax sale certificate.

Following the scavenger sale, the Constitution now guarantees the delinquent owner 2 years to redeem or buy back the property. The high bidder cannot obtain title to the property until after this 2-year redemption period has elapsed.

The proposed Amendment would allow the General Assembly to reduce the 2-year redemption period to no less than 90 days following the scavenger sale.

For the proposed Amendment to Section 8 of Article IX of the Constitution to authorize the General Assembly to reduce the redemption period following certain tax sales which occur after property taxes have not been paid for (5) years.	YES	17

50,000 Students Miss the Boat, Lose 80 Million College Grant $$

1.8 million students enrolled in private colleges, or nearly 60 percent of the total, received financial aid during the last school year (1978-79.)

But, many thousands of students actually lost money during the same period. Last year, some 50,000 eligible students lost out on Basic Education Grants, according to the National Institute of Independent Colleges and Universities.

Almost $80,000,000 could have been awarded to these qualified students last year, but the major reasons they missed out included (1) applying too late, (2) applying incorrectly, and (3) not applying at all.

These Basic Education Grants are the best-known, and probably the best publicized of the available money for college. It therefore seems surprising that so many students overlooked them.

Obviously, if in just one year, 50,000 students neglected getting $80,000,000 from such a well-known government program, thousands of other students could be losing out unnecessarily on even more money that might be available to them.

Example: millions of dollars are available from lesser-known sources of funds such as "private" donors (non-government).

Parents and students should not overlook the thousands of scholarships and grants that are available from a multitude of "private" donors like foundations, philanthropists, trust funds, corporations, religious groups, labor unions, social, fraternal, professional and civic organizations and others.

Finding and keeping track of these "private" funds is a huge, complicated task. One nationwide service organization, The Student Assistance Council of America, has collected 250,000 donor award sources of college money worth $500,000,000, from all over the U.S.

Since substantial amounts of "private" funds are hidden behind certain eligibility requirements, students can be matched to money they need for college; money which they are qualified to receive because of religion, ethnic heritage, residence, activities, achievements, major, career, parents' military service, unions, or clubs.

The Council matches students through individualized research by computer, and provides up to 25 sources of funds for college to each applicant which they are eligible to receive.

Parents and students should never automatically assume that they are ineligible. The trick is to apply early, correctly and often. And, apply everywhere you can.

For information and an application form, write Student Assistance Council, Suite M627, 1775 Broadway, New York, NY 10019, enclosing $1.00 for 1st Class Postage, handling, etc.†
